weeter song er to save, ng. stamm'ring tongen grave.

Y ME NAY?

thou languid, tressed? One, "and coming lead me to Lum,

e? ds are wound prints,

i monarch orns? ry surety,

ollow, here? ly a labor,

' to Him, last? Indor ended,

seive me, any? sot till heaven

LO.

Stars in My Grawn? by request.) is of that beautiful land the sun goeth down; I grace, by my Savier!

in my crown?

any stars in my crosa, sun goeth dowa? Jest in the mansion of me rs in my crown?

d let me labor and pres. ner of socie, e mine in that glorious as sea billow rolls.

then His face I boscid, t I lay down; s in that city of gold, ars in my crown.

REAT

s, now in Training, I be FOR THE FIELD

at the Temple --

16th, at 8 p.m., ted by ner Cadman sent at the CAMP MESTING it and and,

ner Cadman GADIER TURNER Life-Story as .. Wednesday, hij I

.... Thursday, Jer C will unite.)

enographer, i

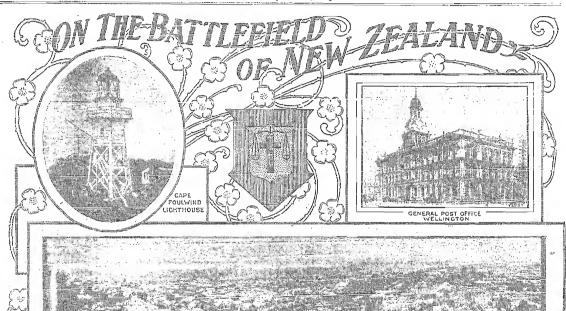

incies at Henders encies at Heseleanes, people who are series in Typista; not yet become oung people cars or solding to to Secretary, Albert St.

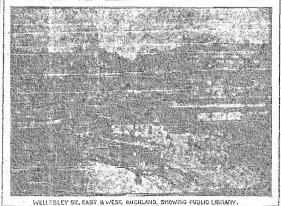

22nd Year, No. 40.

TORONTO, JULY 7, 1906.

Price 2 Cents.

PANORAMA OF MAPIER, THE BEAUTIFULLY SITUATED AND PROSPEROUS CHIEF CITY OF HAWKE'S BAY

a maori warriog with Mere.

A Russian Artillery Captain Won for Christ.

Some years ago (says Major Merriweather) I was in charge of the meetings at Honolulu, Hawaiian Islands.

Hawaiian Islands.

One night there was a fine-looking man, clad in an immaculate white-duck suit, who seemed to drink in every word that was said. In the prayer meeting I discovered that he was a capiain of the Russian Artillery stationed at Vladivostock, but was on a month's furlough, which he was spending in the Pers furlough, which he was spending in the Paradise of the Pacific, where cold and frost and disc of the Pacinic, where con and rost and snow are unknown. I do not think that he missed a single meeting after that during the whole month he was in Honolulu.

whole month he was in Honolulu.

Words cannot express my joy when, walking the decks of the huge Japanese liner, the "Nippon Maru," in company with the Russian captain on the night that he was to sail to rejoin his regiment at Vladivos-regiment at Vladivos-regi tock, he stopped sud-denly in his walk, tock, he stopped sad-denly in his walk, clasped my hand, and looking into any facc, his eyes filling with tears, said with deep emotion, "You sing in your nucetings," From my weary heart the burden rolled away. I am glad to state that the heart - burden which I brought with me to the Islands is me to the Islands gone, and now Jesus is my personal Saviour. In Russia I know of no military officer or private soldier that does not drink, and I never met a temperance man una temperance man un-til I met you Salva-tionists here in Ieno-lulu. Since the first night I heard you night I heard you speak I have no tasted anything into sicating not ed anything intering, not even wine, and I am going back to my regiment to preach tempt and salvation and my fellow-officers."

officers. The last I sav of the captain was a few minutes later, when the great ocean liner was pushing her way down the channel towards the mighty Pacific Ocean. He waved his handkerchief, and pointed sig-nificantly with his finger toward the sky. I still alive, but I am sure that he can be safely counted among the number who have become soldiers of the cross.

#: T

The Speech of the Lost Soul.

At last I am in hell. In spite of all my resolutions not to come, I am here to suffer the just demands of a broken law. O God, can it be that $\infty$, who was taught the way of truth, virtue, and heaven, should choose sin, death, and eternal damnation? Death and judgment are past. The time of repentance has slipped away. Mercy's door is for ever shut. I would not hear the warning voice of God, though it thundered in my ear night and day, from my cradle to my grave. I hardened my heart and said: "I will not yield." At last death came; I tried to repent, but my heart would not melt, and my eyes refused to shed a tear. I passed into eternity At last death came; I tried to repent, damned soul. The worm that never die a damned soul. The worm that never the has coiled its strong folds round my naked heart, and in it fastened its venomous fangs. Mercifui God, pity me! But the white-winged angel has for ever flown. Flends, with their bony hands are grasping for my defenceless soul. It is useless for me to resist. Is there none to deliver?—none, great God! None, I turned my back on Thee; now Thou dost refuse to hear my cry of anguish. The flanes of damnation are wrapping my soul in shrouds of eternal misery. Oh, that I had a drop of water to quench this raging thirst Oh, that I had that destroys me; but there is no water here. Devils laugh at my agony and loudly shout:
"Enjoy the wages of sin for ever!"
The darkness is intense; broken only by

Honor Conferred on Bunyan

At the christening of her grandson, Albert Victor, Queen Victoria made him a present. In consisted of a beautiful statuette, wrought in silver, of the Prince Consort, truly named " Albert the Good."

The Prince is represented as Pilgrim, in the "Finder is represented as Figram, and the "Pilgrim's Progress," wearing the armor of God. His helmet, "the hope of salvation," rests against the stump of a tree, and not lar off is the "shield of faith." John Bunyan supplied the model which our late Queen held. up before her grandson as worthy of imitaker found its way into the palace, and Queen Victoria delighted to honor the man who was sent to prison by King Charles II.—M. F. E.

LEGEND OF SERVICE.

By Henry van Dyke,

lurid flashes of divine wrath, that are thrown like thunderboits from the hands of a just

God! I grope in the darkness to find Him, but plunge over the precipice of despair on the rocks beneath. Bruised and mangled, I rise and stagger on in search of a friend, but rise and stagger on in search of a memory out none is found, all are my enemies. I scream for help, but the only answer is the echo of my own sad cry and the yells of delight from the throats of demons. Alone I yet multitudes are here. They gnash on me with their teeth; they trample me under their feet. I struggle they trample me under their feet. I struggle to rise, and they dash me into the lake of everlasing fire.—Alonel.ves, alone! Without God; without hope; without heaven. Oh, that I had a moment in which to repent, but it will never be given. I have sealed my own doom. God's mercy was extended; I refused till too late.—J. M. B. Pellatt.

It pleased the Lord of angels (praise His name!) To hear, one day report from those who came With pitying sorrow or exultant joy, To tell of earthly tasks in His employ; For some were sorry when they saw now slow The stream of heavenly love on earth must flow; And some were slad because their eyes hadsacer. Along the banks, fresh flowers and living green,

So, at a certain hour, before the throne, The youngest angel, Asmiel, stood alone. Nor glad, nor sad, but full of earnest thought, And thus his tidings to the Master brought: "Lord, in the City Lupon I have found Three servants of Thy holy name, renowned Ahove their fellows. One Is very wise, With thoughts that ever range above the skles; And one is gifted with the golden speech, And makes men glad to hear when he will teach; And one, with no rare gifts or grace endued, Ras won the people's love by doing good. With three such saints Lupon is treby blest; But, Lord, I fain would know which loved Thee best?"

Then spoke the Lord of Angels, to whose look The hearts of all are like an open book;
"In every soul the secret thought I read,
And well I know who loves me best indeed. and well is know who loves me best indeed. But every life has pages vacant still, Whereon a man may write the thing he will! Therefore I read in silence, day by day. And walt for hearts untaught to learn My way. But thou shalt go to Lupon, to the three Who serve Me there, and take this word from Me:

Tell each of them his Master blds him go Alone to Spiran's huts, across the snow; There he shall find a certain task for Mc: But what, I do not tell to them nor thee. Give them the message, make My word the lest, And crown for Me the one who answers best."

Silent the angel stood, with folded hands,
To take the imprint of his Lord's commands;
Then drew one breath, obedient and clate,
And passed, the self-same hour through Lupon's gate.

First to the Temple door he made his way, First to the Temple door is mixed in S. My, And there, because it was an holy-day. He saw the folish by housands throughing, stirred By ardent thirst to hear the prencher's word. Trien, while the echos murmured Bernol's name, Through alses that brushed behind him, Bernol or the same than the sam came; Strung to the keenest pitch of conscious might, With line prepared and firm, and eyes alight, One moment at the pulpit steps he knelt in silent prayer, and on his shoulder felt The angel's hand:—"The Master bids thee go

Alone to Spiran's huts, across the snow,.
To serve Him there." Then Bernol's hidden face Yes serve Him there." Then Bernol's hidden fa Went white as death, and for about the space of ten slow heart-beats there was no reply; Till Bernol looked around and whispered "Why But answer to his question came there none; The Angel sighted, and with a sigh was gone,

Within the humble house where Malvin spent. His studious years, on holy things intent, Sweet stillness reigned; and there the Angel

The saintly sage immersed in thought profound. Weaving with patient toil and willing care A web of wisdom, wonderful and fair; A seamless robe for Truth's great bridgi meet, And needing but one thread to be complete. Then Asmiel touched his hand, and broke the thread

Of fine-spun thought, and very gently said,
"The One of Whom thou thinkest bids thee go Alone to Spiran's huls, across the snow,
To force Him there." With sorrow and surprise
Malvin looked up, reluctance in his eyes,
The broken thought, the strangeness of the call,
The perilous passage of the mountain-wall,
The solitary journey and the length
Of ways unknown, too great for his frail strength, Appalled him. With a thoughtful brow
How?"
And Asmiel answered, as he turned to go.

Asmiel answered, as he turned to go, cold, disheartened voice, "I do not know."

With cold, disheartened voice, "I do not know."

Now as he went, with fading hope, to seek

The third and last to whom God bade him speak

Scarce twenty steps away whom should he meet

But Fermor, hurrying cheerful down the street;

With ready heart that faced his work like play,

And joyed to find it greater every day.

The Angel stopped him with uplifted hand,

And gave, without delay, his Lord's command:

"He Whom thou servest here would have thee go

Alone to Spiran's huts, across the snow,

To serve thim there." Ere Asmiel breathed again

The eager answer leaped to meet him, "When?"

The Angel's face with inward joy grew bright,
And all his figure glowed with heavenly light;
He took the golden circlet from his brow
And gave the crown, to Fermor's answering,
"Now.
For thou hast met the Master's hidden test,
And I have found the man who loves Him best.
Not thine, nor mine, to question or reply
When He commands us, asking 'how?' or 'why'
He knows the cause; His ways are wise and just;
Who serves the King must serve with perfect

Who serves the King must serve with perfect trust."

I heard of one brought to Christ who was a very great-sinner—of so stiff a neck that he never would be approached by anvone who simed at his conversion. He hated the very mention of religion. But one of his neighbors feit forced to go to him very early one morning and say to him:

"I beg your pardon for intruding so early, but I lay awake all last night thinking. about you, and I can-not rest till I tell you something.

He answered: What were you thinking about me for? I don't want any of your thoughts,"

"Oh," said the other, "I felt so sorry, other, "I felt so sorry, to think if you were to die, you would die without a hope."

The bearish man replied: "Mine own business." "Mind your

But," sale ... ec. "that is my, said the other, business. I think my heart will break unless see you saved."

All the answer wast All the answer was"Go away with you;
don't come here with any of your cant."
The brother went home weening, but he was not the only one who felt his heart breaking. The bear breaking. The bear-ish one went away from his forge and said to his wife:

"I can always answer these religious fellows. I do not care for your parsons a big but that neighbor of ours has been in here and but that neighbor of ours has been in here and says it will break his heart unless I am converted; and that beats me."

He was beaten. Out of a sont of kindly pity for his neighbor's weak-mindedness, with a mixture of acknowledged feeling on his own account, he went to hear the preaching of the Word, and was brought to Jesus Charles H. Spurgeon.

You can unlock a man's whole life it watch what words he uses most. We have a small set of words, which, though we scarcely aware of it, we always work and which really express all that we mea life or have found out of it.—Henry Dinamond.

Anxiety for Souls.

Devlor places of the wate Short well egu iences o education fine chu last, but corps, stree equipme

Wet

The fl

nated on waters of

This sect

sea level

The Roc Calgary ian Pacit

of the la

one-tent into flou

Wetas ed by a found a a heavy depth fr neath th

a Buoyan.

grandson, Albert him a present ituette, wrought ort, truly named as Pilgrin, in aring the armor ne of salvation," tree, and not far

John Bunyan late Queen held rorthy of imitathe Bedford tinlace, and Queen te man who was es H .-- M. F. E

ety for Souls.

teard of one vas a very great of so stiff a that he never be approached youe who aimed conversion. He the very men-if religion. But f his neighbors preed to go to very early one beg your parden trading so early, lay awake all night thinking you and I can-st till I tell you bing?

answered:
at were you ng about me
I don't want any ir thoughts,"

1." said the
"I felt so sorry.

ik ii you were to ou would die ut a hope."

bearish man re"Mind your ousiness."

tt," said ...
"that is my said the es. I think my will break unless vou saved." the answer was:

away with you; come here with f your cant." brother went brother went went the only one felt his heart ng. The bear-ne went away, his forge and his wife: se religious felr parsons a bit been in here and nless I am com sort of kindly aindedness, with feeling on his u the preaching ght to Jesus.

thele life if you. t. We have call chough we are ays work with hat we mean by —Henry Dren

THE CITY OF

Wetaskiwin, Alberta.

The flourishing city of Wetaskiwin is situated on the plateau in which rises the headwaters of the Battle River, one of the principal tributaries of the North Saskatchewan. This section of country has an elevation above sea level of from two to four thousand feet. The Rocky Mountains are two hundred miles to the west. The city is located upon the Calgary and Edmouton branch of the Canadian Pacific Railway, and is forty miles south of the latter place, which is the terminus of the line.

Ensign Thuriton, the Pioneer Officer.

The history of Wetaskiwin is typical of the winderful development of the Northwest Ter-ritories. Where, a ritories. Maere, a few years ago, there would be only tail grass or the prim-eval forest, to-day there stands a flourishing city, sur-rounded by many fine farms.

Its Development.

Devlopment has kept pace with immigra-tion. One after another, new industries and places of business have been established, and the watchword is "Progress."

the watchword is "Progress.

Short as its career has been, it is already well equipped with the comforts and conveniences of modern life. The religious and educational needs are fully supplied by seven educational needs are tully supplied by seven fine churches and a large brick school; and, last, but not least, a live Salvation Army corps. An up-to-date electrical plant lights the streets. There is also an adequate fire equipment and an unfailing supply of water.

iling supply of water. The town can also boast of telegraph and telephone accommodation, and several miles of well graded streets and sidewalks. There are three chartered banks and two weekly newspapers. There are five grain elevators and a flour mill ors and a flour mill with a capacity of 65 barrels per day. There are also a sufficient number of warehouses to store

Mr. James, Meanager of New the year's crop, which mounted last year to over 400,000 bushels, of which only about one-tenth was wheat. This is all converted one-tenth was wheat. The into flour at the local mill.

Some of Nature's Gifts.

Wetashiwin is fortunate in being surrounded by a fine farming district, from which it will be provided with ever-increasing business. At no spot on the continent is to be found a richer and more productive soil. It is a heavy black vegetable mould, ranging in depth from six inches to three feet. Underneath this top layer of black soil is a heavy Wetaskiwin,-The x indicates the Public School.

wetaskiwin.—He x ine x of the facture of native lumber.

A Rosenroll, M.P.P .- A Friend of the Army

Northern Alberta is also underlaid with immense beds of coal. This is classed as lignite, and makes very good fuel, being used almost entirely by the residents.

Opportunities.

The rapidly increasing population of the town and district, and a corresponding development of the many and yaried natural resources which abound on every side, make Wetaskiwin rich in business opnortunities. Sheep thrive well and there is an unlimited demand for woollen goods by the fur trade of the north. A woollen mill should prove a good investment energially as water-nower is of the north. A woollen mill should prove a good investment, especially as water-power is right at hand. Great quantities of wood, suitable for pulp, are within easy reach, and the increasing demand for paper throughout the West would seem to indicate that a pulp and paper mill is an immediate necessity. Sugar beets have been grown with satisfactory results in the district. There is no beet sugar factory in the locality, and Wetaskiwin, surrounded as it is with an abundance of fertile soil, and having good railway connections, would prove a fine site for such an industry. As the town is destined to become an import-As the fown is destined to become an impor-ant railway centre, it will, no doubt, become a distributing centre for a wide area, and wholesale houses will spring up. The rapid growth of the town makes a strong demand for builders.

Climate.

Winter is a season of bright, cloudless days, infrequent and scanty snowfalls and frequent and prolonged breaks of warm weather, heralded by the chinook wind. Wagons are used during the entire year, and it is only, an occasional season that sleights are necessary for brief periods. The winter generally breaks up in the early part of March with a grand blowing of warm wind from the west, followed by a period of from one to three weeks of warm, bright weather, the beginning of spring. The modifying element of the climate, as a whole, is the chinook wind—so-called herause it blows from the region formerly inhabited by the Chinook Indians, on the banks of the Lower Columbia River.

The Army's Operations.

The Army's Operations.

It was on the 16th of August, 1905, that the Army began its work in this city. Ensign Charlton, assisted by Lieuts. Harris and Janes, were the officers selected for the open-ing, and at the outset many inconveniences were experienced. The only place in which they could hold a meeting was a-small school house, but this soon proved unable to accommo unable to accommodate the crowds who came. A lot was, therefore, purchased, and the building on it remodelled into a barracks capable of scating two hundred people. The overhead portion made a very suitable officers' quarters. The cost of the whole was $350, which was liberally subscribed by the people of Wetaskiwin. The quarters are nicely furnished, and a comfortable home is assured for the officers stationed able home is assured for the officers stationed there from time to time.

For a while the officers stood alone. Some-times the drum would be carried by some unsaved person to the open-air stand, but often the brave girls carried it between themsclves. They were not the kind to give in over a little hardness. Victory came; after a time souls sought the pardon of God in their time souls sought the pardon of God in their meetings, and began to take their stand. To-day there are twenty-one enrolled soldiers, four recruits, and four Candidates for the work, while others have removed elsewhere.

The attendance at the meetings is good, and the financial standing excellent, which goes to show that the Army is appreciated in the city.

Farewell orders have come to the pioneers, and we wish them God-speed as they go to and we wish them God-speed as they go to their new appointments, and welcome in our midst Capts. Habkink and Rankin, who will carry on the noble work so well begun.

Elevators at Wetaskiwin,

By Lieut.-Colonel Gaskin.

In the conflict MEN are wanted, MEN of hope and faith and prayer."

HE trumpet call has sounded! Men -workers, fighters—are wanted, not to engage in an earthly carnage or some political enterprise, but for the great business of lifting high the flag of Calvary and rushing into the field against sin and Satan. Men are wanted! The need for and Satan. Men are wanted! The need for consecrated, whole-hearted, Holy Ghost inspired men was never so great as it is to-day! To-day! To-DAY! Men whose hearts God has touched. Men whose eyes have been opened to behold earth's great sorrow. Does not the sacrifice of gory Golgotha plead with YOU! Will YOU leave untold the story of Calvary?—that story which has brought hope to the despairing, light to those in darkness, salvation to the sinner, and has landed upon the eternal shores.

landed upon the eternal shores millions of blood-washed, who sing the praises of God and the Lamb in His presence for evermore. If God considered the salvation of the race of such signal importance as to offer His own Son upon the altar of sacrifice, does He consider as uninportant the business of constitution to the same than the s unimportant the business of proclaiming to dying humanity the message of cruth? Are the teeming multitudes to be allowed to hurl themselves into hell in their mad plunge for worldly joy, without your voice being raised to warn them, or your hands outstretch I to stop them?

God demands you service. You owe it to Him or what He has done for you in view of your own experience of the love Can you, personal { Christ. treat with indifference a matter of such vital cons juence? Surely your soul is stir ed to its depths, when you por ler over the attitude of the leasure-seeking worldlings to wards your God, your Father, and your Friend,

There are two sides to this question to be considered.

There is the honor and glory of God. Are you not jealous for this? Can you permit your best Friend to be ignored, even insulted, and crucified over again without a word of protest? Nay, nay! Secondly: Can you think of the miseries resulting from sin in this life, and the awful, horrible, blood-chill-ing; consequences of all wrong-doing in the miserial without wanting to stem the ride of mest, without wanting to stem the tide of vol.? How many men shout themselves locate for some political propaganda, or on belief of some Parliamentary Candidate loss cause they have espoused! Ponder how men risk their lives in the fiery flood of some mighty conflagration when others are in danger. We would not consider any cen-sure too severe for the man who left those in peril to die unhelped. Amidst the roar of of icad and shell pouring down on the field of battle, men have braved death in order to carry some stricken, wounded comrade to a place of shelter and safety.

The Patriotic Call.

When the call came for Canadian soldiers to join the fighting lines in South Africa, the number who volunteered far exceeded that required. Patriotic sentiment may have animated some to enlist, others might have for the mere love of military display volunteered their services, but did not every preparatory evolution and drill but remind them of the grim reality of war, and the possibility of never again returning to their native land? Shall we be less eager to offer our services, to consecrate our lives, employ our energies, or use our time than these men were, who in the hour of need rallied to the British standard? Never!

Before God, upon your knees, consecrate your life now to Him. He deserves the best you have and arc. Do not make excuses, let nothing obstruct your way. Permit no selfish consideration to weigh with you, Excuses doth He not know it? and shall not He render to every man according to his works."

Personal and Otherwise.

The Chief of the Staff loses no opportunity The Chief of the Staff loses no opportunity for showing his deepening interest in the young people's work of the Army. The latest evidence of this is his proposal to meet in council all those who are engaged in that important branch of our operations. The councils will take place at Clapton on July 14th and 15th, and Mrs. Booth will, it is hoped, be able to attend some of them.

The Territorial Young People's Secretary of Australia, Lieut.-Colonel Horskins, is taking a trip to England, where he intends making special study of the many successful methods employed by the Army in dealing with British young people.

The General raised Lieut.-Colonel Brengle to the rank of Colonel prior to his return from Scandinavia to America,

Colonel Brengle made a speciality of work amongst the children in each of the corps he visited, devoting Saturday afternoons to them. He was much cheered by the scores of little ones who earnestly sought salvation through-out his campaign, and pressed upon field officers and others the urgency for effective effort on their be-

Major John Milsaps, who started via England for special started via England for special work in India, was pronounced medically unfit for the strain of that climate, and has, therefore, returned to the U. S. A. battle-

Lieut.-Colonel Rowe, of National Headquarters, London, is succeeding Lieut.-Colonel Minnie Reid in the Provincial command of Ireland.

A series of Scandinavian Congresses take place in the summer months. The General's engagements, including a forth-coming motor tour in Great Britain, render it impossible for him to attend these in person. He has, however, deputed prominent officers to represent him minent officers to represent him at these important gatherings. Accordingly Commissioner and Mrs. Booth-Hellberg have proceeded to Stockholm, amongst the Swedes; Commissioner Higgins to Copenhagen, for the Danish people; Commissioner Nicol and Colonel Whatmore to Christiania, Norway, and Commissioner Rees, of Sweden, will attend the Finnish Congress at Helsingfors. Extensive preparations are going forward in each country.

A large store in Pans advertised one day's

A large store in Pana advertised one day's special sale, on which ten per cent. of their income was to be given to the Salvation Army to further its beneficent work. This is certainly one of the most commendable recognitions of the Army's usefulness that has come to light, and we should like to hear of similar enterprise in cities like Toronto, Montreal, Winnipeg, etc.

The new opening at Haileybury, from which Cobalt will be worked for the present, was full of promise for future service. Brigadier Collier left no stone unturned so advance in this direction, and he is to be congratulated upon the initial victories won, which will no doubt open the way to others.

Lisgar St., has planned a moonlight excur-sion to Hamilton on the "Turbina" for July. 17th, as a means to the end of raising funds for a new set of instruments. A grand mus-ical festival on board, at the price of a quarter, including face there and hade in certainly abincluding fare there and back, is certainly at

Men and Women Wanted !

$$$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\$\alpha\$\alph

Jo Rescue Souls from Sin and Death. To Co-Operate with the Actin Spirit for their Salvation.

Candidates for Sternal Slore and Partnorship with Sesas Christ.

A SOUL-WINNER'S LIFE IS REAVEN'S IDEAL.

APPLY ON CONVICTION TO COMMISSIONER COOMBS. - THE TEMPLE, TORONTO.

The Rewards are Imperishable!

> will not remove the responsibility for obeying God's call, nor will excuses save the ouls of those to whom you are called to minister. Let no thought of ease, self or any worldly Let no thought of ease, self or any worldly advancement enter into your calculations at all. Of what value are the passing pleasures of time, compared with the eternal treasures which are laid up by all those who follow Christ and do His will. If self-interest is served, where is the profit? There is none. Time's trinkets are deceiving. They are valueless in the light of eternity, while every soul won to the feet of the Master is a jewel in the crown of the worker. the crown of the worker.

> The day of opportunity is come. The responsibility rests with you. God calls, Obey His voice and write your Provincial-Officer, offering yourself as a Candidate for the work of the Army this very day.
>
> If tempted to hesitate or delay your consecutive this company to the consecutive this company to the consecutive this company.

secration to this service, meditate prayerfully upon the words of the wise man who said:

"If thou forbear to deliver them that are drawn unto death, and those that are ready to be slain; if thou sayest: Behold, we knew it not; doth not He that pondereth the heart consider it? and He that keepeth thy soul,

"Whoever have not a sec ment!"

These were tered by the earnestness a vances in year intense.

Even those astonished as marvelously-s had thought sperse the lal Councils with

It was the not to lose th arrangements completed, a tainly justifi which the making town pressed, while passed expect

There was a urday night, la good sprink gade of music interesting to eighty bandsn these fine fell work, and at whose lives b marvelous op which alone o rows. The S for Luton sin years ago! The ungodl

the sharp and that flowed fo the General's thirty capture of the individ

A touching the penitent f ail she could God in the An in tears of re

In the afte ward Graham had generousl free of cost.

GENERAL

A Blessed Week-End Amongst the Straw-Plaiters.

"Whoever else may have time to waste, I have not a second. I must redeem every moment!"

These were practically the first words ut-tered by the General on Saturday night, and they strikingly illustrate that indelatigable carnestness and streless energy which, far from diminishing as our beloved leader advances in years, undoubtedly become more intense.

Even those who know the General best are astonished as they behold this continual and astonished as they behold this continual and marvelously-sustained labor for souls. We had thought it humanly impossible to inter-sperse the laborious series of Field Officers' Councils with any week-end campaigns.

Eighty Bandsmen,

It was the General's own emphatic resolve It was the General's own emphatic resolve not to lose the opportunity that canced the arrangements for Luton to be hurriedly completed, and the results have certainly justified the herculean labors which the effort involved. The harmaking town, with its forty thousand inhabitants, has been mightly moved and impressed, while the ingathering of souls surpassed expectations. passed expectations.

There was a splendid congregation on Saturday night, between nine and ten hundred, a good sprinkling of uniform, and a fine brigade of musicians. In this connection, it is interesting to know that there are nearly eighty bandsmen at the two corps. Many of these fine fellows are the fruit of our junior work, and amongst the soldiers are some whose lives bear elequent testimony to the marvelous operations of that divine power which alone can lift humanity out of its sor-rows. The Salvation Army has done much for Luton since it was opened, twenty-three years ago!

The ungodly were tresistibly arrested by the sharp and burning words of divine wisdom that flowed forth in a car, swift stream from that nowed forth in a car, swift stream from the General's mind a d heart. Among the thirty captures on Sat Irday night were some of the individual prolems of the corps.

A touching inciden of that meeting was observed when a loca the penitent form. Si officer led his wife to had previously tried all she could to turn im aside from serving God in the Army, but it r face was now bathed in tears of repentance In the afternoon a crowded the Grand T In the afternoon a magnificent audience crowded the Grand T eatre, which Mr. Edward Graham-Falcon, the lessee and manager, had generously placed at the Army's disposal free of cost. Owing to recent severe illness,

His Worship the Mayer was mable to prerise, the char being taken, in his unavoidable absence, by Alderman G. Warren, J.P., who was supported by a large company of Councillors, the Chief Constable, and leading townsinen.

The scene at night was striking in the extreme. The large theatre was absolutely packed, from the backmost seat on the stage to the farthest strip of standing room perched away up in the angle between roof and top-most gallery, and furthermore, the street was blocked with others who wanted to gain ac-

"So many people," says the General in his opening sentences, "have no heart for a complete, out-and-out religion. The promises with which the Bible is full are very charming, the thing the comprehensing them, but the and they seek to appropriate them, but the duties of religion are too arduous, and to this aspect of God's will as revealed to them in the Scripture, they persistently shut their eyes and cars."

"The very goodness of God," he says in another striking passage, "His courteons supply of food and raiment and home and friends, instead of inducing most people to devote their lives to His service, only makes them content in their lives of selfishness and case."

Falliand with teating the lives and case."

Enlivened with epigram, illustration, and quotation, the message of salvation is delivered with a wonderful lucidity that opens the dullest mind to a realization of its signifi-

One wonders how the ungodly and the lukewarm professor can sit on their seats while the Prophet of the Lord declares, with such passionate realism the terrible doom of the disobedient.

Colonels Lawley and Endie were at the helm during the well-fought prayer meeting, and sixty-three souls were recorded as the week-end's captures.

Amongst the fishers. Candidate Mary Booth, daughter of the Chief of Staff, was at work.

A Beautiful Act.

When the meeting was over the General, surrounded by a cheering multitude, hurried off to perform a thoughtful deed of kindness that reflects, in a very conching way, the deep and tender sympathy of this great and busy and tender sympathy of this great and busy leader of men.

In the afternoon the chairman mentioned that in Luton there fived a sainted lady, ninety-two years of age, whose dearest wish in life was to see and hear the General. But she dared not leave the room. Some years ago her aged husband had expressed a similar wish to see the late Mr. Gladstone, and that wish was gratified.

Tired out with the heat and the labors of this arduous campaign, our leader went to shake the aged saint's hand and cheer her on her way to heaven.—J. Y. P.

COURTYARD OPEN-AIRS.

Novel Summer Fighting in Sweden.

One of the most difficult sides of our warfare in Sweden is the fact that nobody is allowed to have open-air meetings in the streets or market-places of the towns or villages. This fact has made it difficult to get permission to use even the courtyards for this purpose, though no laws forbid open-airs in these places.

in these places.

During the past month, however, our comrades have held quite a number of meetings in courtyards, both in Stockholm and several other of the bigger towns. In one instance the Cadets held a very large meeting on a certain ground inside the borders of Stockholm, where over seven hundred people listened to their songs and testimonies.

Several souls have sought salvation in these ward-meetings yard-meetings.

The other day, at one sitting, Commissioner Rees, accepted seventy-three Candidates for the next Training Session, which begins January 1st. Amongst them is a student from the Upsala University.

ADVANCES IN GERMANY.

Crowded Demonstrations and Many Souls.

The Whitsuntide gatherings have been unparalleled in the history of the Army in Ger-commissioner Oliphant held large meetings in Rheinland on Whit-Sunday. These were attended by thousauds of people, and twenty-four souls sought salvation.

The Berlin forces held their annual outing on Tuesday, when two large ships, full of singing Salvationists and friends, adjourned to one of Germany's famous forests, where the Commissioner conducted a meeting, and three souls came boldly out, knelt on the ground, and cried for mercy.

In every part of the country demonstrations

In every part of the country demonstrations were held, and the Army was to the front as never before,

In Cologne and Solingen, where LieutColonel Gauntlett conducted, thirty-four men and women came to the cross, German Salvationists are now preparing for the summer gatherings in Berlin. Comrades have come from the east and west, north and south. Permission to march through the city's beautiful streets has been granted, and a mass meeting on the famous Tempelhofer-field—the Kaiser's parade ground—has been

The visit of the General, who has such a big place in the heart of the German nation. is anticipated with delight by the officers, and they are determined to give him a record welarranged.

NORWAY'S FESTIVAL,

The annual Whit-Monday excursion on the beautiful Christianiafiord was this year, under beautifu Constantanto was this year, under the able leadership of Colonel and Mrs. Og-rim, exceptionally successful.

The lovely little scaport, Moss, on the east side of the flord, was selected as the rendezvous for the eleven corps representing the Salvation forces from the city of Christiania, as well as the little places on both sides of the Meetings were conducted in the most avail-

Meetings were conducted in the most available halls, souls were saved and sunctified, and at a great open-air rally on the public grounds thousands of people nathered to listen to the Colonel's powerful address.

Colonel and Mrs. Ogrim were devotedly assisted by Licut. Colonel Maidment; a Brigadier and Mrs. Breien, who are a farewell orders from their Mother Cossitates in an approximate in another. take up an appointment in anothe taken the world. as busi-

Officers and Soldiers of Weteskiwing

Young People's Page

TUNING CHURCH BELLS.

The bell-makers were finishing a huge hell for a Magnificent church. Beside them stood a piano. One struck a note of music from the instrument the other struck the hell a blow with the hammer. "Cla-a-ng!" sounded the mellow metal; and the man beside the bell took up his tools and offipped a small piece from its edge.
"Still too high," he said. "Now, once more, George."

Again the plane was struck, and again the bell

Again the plano was struck, and again the beawas struck.

"Still high," said the workman, and he carefully chipped off another piece of metal.

"Won't you ruin that hall, chipping it so?" a clergyman stopped to ask.

"Why, bless you, no, sir!" said the bell-maker.

"You always have to chip a bell to bring it to the required tone. Every bell, after it's done, has to be tuned, and the only way to tune it is to chip it in this way."

should comfort people undergoing trial and emptation. Looked at in the right light, from God's standpoint, the blows of adversity 7/2 meant to "tune" us to the heavenly music, so that we may live mearer the divine ideal.—C. E. World.

STRONGEST PUMP ON EARTH.

The heart 4s practically a pump a little over 5 inches high and 3 litches wide.

This pump acts 70 times per minute: 4,200 times per hour; 100,500 times per hour; 100,500 times per hour; 55,72,000 per year; 2,575,440,000 in 70 years.

At each beat it pumps an average of 30z, 5,4drs, into circulation; 6.1 quarts per minute, 360,6 per hour.

into circulation; 6.1 quarts per minute, 1920 per hour.

All the blood in the body, viz, 54.6 quarts passes through the heart every two or three minutes.

The heart exerts a power daily capable of lifting over 44 tons to a height of 36 inches. During 70 years of life this marvelous little pump, working measuring day and night, delivers the rememous amount of more than 55,000,000 gallons of blood.

STEAMING ABOVE THE CLOUDS.

Until I went to South America (says a great traveler) I believed that sailing above the clouds was an experience confined to neronauts. It is only possible however, to perform the vovage without a balloon, Indeed I did it in a steamer an e. It is

It is note possible to the control of six hundred tons.

Not to mystify you, I am talking of a voyage on Lake Titicana is the Andes, a body of water 12.550 feet above sen evel. It is a curious experience, floating calmly songst the snow-expect peaks, two miles above the sins. The scenery is sumply grand, and the skeep so a through the runefied atmosphere are of well-d aim. The scenery is sumply grand, and the skeep so a hought pleanty.

A strange this about this lake is that it is practically bottomies in all parts—I mean that the depth has never been a thomed.

The same are the most of the most of the lake. These on the slow, carrier on the shores of a lake. Coal for use in the steamers costs about $1 a ton, owing to the cost of trans-

NATIONAL BRIDAL WREATHS.

The custom of wearing bridel wreatis is observed in nearly all parts of the world where flowers are obtainable, but there is a vast deal of difference in the character of the wreaths themseives.

In Germany these are made of myrtle: in the Black Porest, of hawthorns; in Switzerland, of white roses; England, France, and America still cling to orange blossoms.

England, France, and America still cling to orange blossoms.
Plak carnations and red roses dock the brides of Spain, while those of the lonian Isles were vinc leaves. Rosemary is the favorite in Bohemia, and in Pesth ribbon and artificial flowers are blended.
The Norwegian. Swedish, and Servian bridal crowns of sliver are very beautiful; and in Bavaria and Silésia one sees them made of fine wire, gold, glass beads, and tinsel, while in Athens filigree work is employed.

DRESSES OF SPIDER WEB.

The worm is proberbially the last of created things to turn against the tyranny of those who seek to coerce it, and the silkworm is evidently no exception to the rule, for it has for aged been patiently laboring to grafify human vanity. Not so the splace, however, whose beautiful silk has not yet heen similarly applied, dimply because with beast refuses to work slied, slimply because willy beast refuses to work price, but a determined onslaught upon his pride prejudices has been made in Madagasear, where rular factory has been started to make slik from spider web. The old difficulty has still ad, however, and time alone will show when it the spider is to be the victor. The spin luxiu fously in their native groves, or across their young, or otherwise when brought to the factory, but they will not work except just occasionally, when the mood happens to strike them. Then they sometimes spin for days at a time and die of overwork. Their hibits and customs are being carefully studied, and it only they will do what is required of them they will be made as comfortable as circumstances will permit. Altogether it is the pretitest little parlor, Perhaps the spider may yet be induced to walk in and favor the proprietor with those slik dresses for which the world is walting.—Chamber's Journal.

ORIGIN OF THE NAMES OF FABRICS.

Muslin is named for Mosul, in Asla. Serge comes from Xerga, the Spanish for a certain Mustin is named for Mostl, in Asia.

Serge comes from Nerga, the Spanish for a certain sort of blanket.
Bandam is derived from an Indian word signifying to bind or the.
Catheo is named from Calicut, a town in India, where it was first printed.
Alpaca is he name of a species of liama, from whose wool the genuine fabric is woven.
The name damask is an abbreviation of Damascus; sath is a corruption of Zaytown, in China.
Velvet is the Indian widnet, woolly, and is traceable further back to the Latin veilum, a hide or pell.
Shawl is from the Sanskrit sain, which means floor, shawls having been first used as carpet tape.

Try.

try.

Cambric comes from Cambral, gauze from Gaza, baize from Bajue, dimity from Damietta, and jeans from Jean.

Blanket hears the name of Thomas Blanket, a famous English elethier, who aided the introduction of weelens into England in the 14th century.—Ex.

TWICE AS BIG AS NIAGARA.

TWICE AS BIG AS NIAGARA.

The Zambesi River, carrying a huge volume of water, two miles in whith, as it reaches the western coorders of Rhodecia precipitates listed into a cavernous gengs, and tous traverses the northern plans of the country.

This great drop in the given has produced "the most beautiful gem of the enritle scenery," the vice or a Pails. Almost twice as bread as Nisgara, and two and a half times as high, an immense most in water nois over its edge to precipitate healf in magnite, it spiendor four hundred sheer feet into the narrow enryon below.

Understred, the Rhodesian engineers have, without detracting from the natural beauty of the surroundings, thrown across the canyon a spiendid 659-foot cantilever bridge, and thus opened the way to Tanganyika, to Uganda, to Cuiro. — Sir Percy Girouard.

INCREASE OF THE EMPIRE.

The Imperial Blue Book gives the following interesting details re the past forty years' growth of the British Empire: Since 1881, the area of the Empire has increased from $5,00,000 to 12 million square miles, whilst the population, which was then 250,000,000. But now estimated at 400,000,000. Fifty-four millions of that number are white.

SIBERIAN LONELINESS.

Mile after nile as you travel along there is no break in the monotony of this great fruzen land. Everywhere is show, everywhere the vast white plains, in the perspective of distance the very dider, met into the general level, and as you look around you are met everywhere with the same manufact unbroken snow. The country lies before you as earth that is dead, so still, so motionless, so right is the landscape. Life has fled before the ley winds that draw out of the north, and the land you traverse is surely the land of death. There is scarcely the cry of a dingle bird to break upon the ear in this mutenanted wilderness. The very streams are motionless masses of ice. Land there is none, and you may wander east, west, north, and south without landmark to act you right. Day after day and week after week your deer will gallop along their frozen way, and your compass or. If the grey clouds will lift for awhile, the stars in the heaven above will be your only guide.—"A Winter Journey."

FOR LEFT-HANDED MUSICIANS,

Victins are adapted for the use of left-handed avera by reversing the order of the strings and Vicins are adapted for the use of left-handed players by reversing the order of the strings and the bention of the base bar and sounding post. Some left-handed vicinities, however, play upon instru-ments with the strings arranged in the usual manner. There are no left-handed planos, Gritars are made left-handed simply by reversing the strings. With left-banded simply by reversing the strings. With the bindo it is necessary to change the form of the next on account of the short string. Left-handed nates are made, the location of the keyloles and keys being changed to the opposite side of the flute. There are made left-handed cornets and occasionate a larger brass instrument, which are so constructed us to bring the pistons as convenient to the larger trass they are to the right-handed player in the instrument as ordinarily made.

AMENITIES OF WOMAN'S LIFE IN TURKEY,

The band lot of women in Turkey, as compared The hard but of women in Turkey, as compared, with that in adightnend countries, often is described in ways to appeal for sympathy. Dr. Mary Mills Tatrick, in the Forum, tells this incident, which turns to view the humorous side of the picture. I once knew of a woman who was condemned prison for a few weeks for having been involved in a street quarrel. The police came to take her to take her to a street quarter.

"No," she said, "I cannot go now, I have a young-baby that needs my care. It is impossible for me to, be away from home."

"Very west," the policeman said, "I shall come another day."

He waite! about a year, and came back to take the

He waited about a year, and came back to take the woman to prison.

"No," said she, "it is again impossible. I have another young child. Why did you not come before?"

"Very well," he said, "let me know when it is convenient for you."

The woman waited until a short time before one of the public feast days, upon which it is the custom to give freedom to those who are imprisoned for slight offences. She then put her house in order and sent word to the police that she was willing to go to prison if she could take her youngest child with firer and satisfactory arrangements could be made.

"Big Ben," at Westminster, London.

"Big Beh," at Westminster, London."

The great clock over the Houses of-Parliament, kinown as "Big Beh." is the finest timelicener of any public clock in the world.

There are four dials, 180 feet above the ground level; each of them 22% feet in diameter, or nearly four hundred feet square in area. They are formed of east-iron framework, which forms the divisions and figures, the spaces belief, like in with oppleeent kinas.

The hour lagures are two feet long, and the minute spaces one foot square. The hour hands are solid, and cast of gun-setal. For lightness the minute hands are tubular: they are of copper.

Each minute hand measures eleven feet from its centre of motion to the point, so that the load on the clock, when subjected to a high wind or covered with snow, can be appreciated. The weight for the going part is comparatively light; and requires winding once a week only.

Why o anil saci salvation ing to do and nati inquiry. See v money. always America it cost $ fellows But nol Those v ious, bu when w money the field almost : which months carry it of poun no idea will tall but do would down. that the beaven only as works. pass by How carthly face th exultan mighty

more thity, class ces are of socie men. a millio which I not affr them:w Oh, r sibility miseral kings t

heard t vear to over th most ea as that numbe Men case a body, a are fol Ask somebe they p

so the that p ians, a to take a farc devils Thre? Wha other shippi trade come πò meetir And Looke

SACRIFICE FOR

Why cannot we make men willing to suffer and sacrifice, and do and dare for God and the salvation of the world, as they are made willing to do, all as it were in a moment, for home and native land? This is my daily perplexed inquiry.

ulte
See
Und Off an 1 is uds urse
the this are and cek
cek
ven will

and one ry-ner, ade vitta the ded and ute, on-the the

EV.

See what willingness there is to expend money. No estimates appal them. War always has been expensive. In the great American contest it has been calculated that it cost $15,000 to kill each of the 280,000 poor fellows who perished in that fearful struggle. This who perished in that rearrial struggle. But nobody seemed particularly concerned. Those who have to pay it say it will be serious, but if it has to be, it must be. And then when we come along and ask for a little money to keep the armies of Jesus Christ in the field, or to increase their numbers, we are almost locked upon as picknesters.

almost looked upon as pickpockets.

I can see at the present moment a plan which would in some twelve or eighteen months increase the power to save in this mighty London at least threefold, but to carry it out would involve a few thousands of pounds; but where to get this sun I have no idea. Men-professing Christian men-will talk, read, and sermonize about charity, but do nothing, or next to nothing. They would be shocked, and perhaps knock you down, or sue you for libel, if you suggested that they were atheists, and did not believe in heaven and hell, and the judgment day; but only ask them to prove their faith by their works, and they come to a dead stop and pass by on the other side.

How willing men are to expend life in these earthly contests. What eagerness there is to face the possibility of death. Officers are exultant in the prospect. It is said that they exultant in the prospect. It is said that they more than any other classes of the community, clamor for the war. The recruiting offices are besieged, and that not by the riff-raff of society, but by quite decent, well-to-do men. The knowledge that three-quarters of a million men perish 1 in the last war in which England and Rusia were engaged does which England and Ru sia were engaged does not affright them, any ay it does not prevent them wanting to rush into the fight.

Oh, my God! what a contrast does the possibility of this tremer ons effort bear to the miscrably they efforts hade by the King of kings to subdue the wifid to Him! I have heard that one of the argest missionary societies could not find the hundred men last year to replenish their various stations all over the heather work, although they tried year to replenish thei various stations all over the heathen work, although they tried most earnestly. We are not in such extremity as that, my contrades. We have even sent out fifty, at a time; but what is that number among the vast nations of the earth? Men and women prefer to stay at home in case and luxury, and yet they stick to it, while their selfishness is apparent to everybody, and most of all to themselves, that they are following lesses Christ.

are following Jesus Christ.

are following Jesus Christ.

Ask the poor to go, and they have got somebody to maintain; ask the educated, and they prefer fortune and respectability; and so they go to their professions, and trades, and banks and clerkships, or anything else that promises them ease and money. But, mark 3 on, they are Christians, good Christians, all the time—but Christians who are 5 and, for some most excellent reasons to broad, for some most excellent reasons, to to take care of their own interests. Oh, what a farce must all this appear to angels and devils! What does it appear, O Jesus, to

What willingness there is to subordinate all other interests to wart

other interests to wari

Talk about trade? Yes, it will suffer. The shipping interests? Yes, dreadful. It may mean the transfer of some ocean-carrying trade to the ships of other nations, never to come back. Dear bread? Yes. But no great protest comes. No mass meetings. Not a single fear expressed. And, perhaps there leads not to be. Looked at from the status it of mainterest.

taining the honor and credit of this great nation, there ought not to be the winking of an eye. These things should be freely offered up. Perhaps so! But how is it that with multitudes who will argue thus any sacrifice of trade, or profit, or comfort required from them in order to push forward our war of salvation, is counted too burdensome to make!

My comrades, let us at least be consistent. We must review our position, and re-examine ourselves. Are we doing our atmost? Or are we talking about great efforts and sacriare we talking about great efforts and sacrifices where there is nothing done that can be counted irksome, and nothing contributed that can be considered a sacrifice. It is very possible for us to be looking to outsiders for what we can do ourselves. The next new departure of the Army may be in this direction. We must be ready anyway for anything likely to help on our war, and the old, old saying may receive a new and startling regification. may receive a new and startling verification. "God helps them that help themselves."— Your General, willing to learn and to follow, William Booth.

Saturday, July 7.—Mary's Anointing.—John xl. 55-57,

Sunday, July 8.—The Triumphal Entry.—Mark M. 1-5; Luke Nix, 37-40.

Monday, July 9.—Voice from Heaven.—Matt. xxi, 19-16; John xii, 29-32. Tuesday, July 10.—Teaching the People.—John xii,

Wednesday, July 11.—Pretending Ignorance.—Mark xi, 22-33,

Thursday, July 12.—Wicked Husbandmen, Friday, July 13.—Without the Pass,—Matt. xxll. 1-14. Saturday, July 14.—Questioned by Enemies.—Matt. xxll. 13-21.

THE RESCUE WORK.

By Mrs. N. B. Johnston, Secretary.

This week we present to our readers for special remembrance in prayer, the dear Rescue officers and their honored leader, Mrs. Coombs. If any workers need the sympathy and prayers of our Christian readers, surely these brave toilers have a very important claim. They are daily and hourly dealing with the sins and sorrows of others. They touch continually the broken chords of many wrecked lives, and cause them to vibrate wiith a new song of hope and courage. Their work a new song of hope and courage. Their work is a constant strain upon heart and nerve and brain, as well as physically taxing. They need ever the soothing, strengthening touch of divine grace, and while these dear officers are giving the very best of their consecrated lives to the service of the lost, let all who are interested in this work—and their names are leving a tray correctly for the workers. legion-pray earnestly for the workers,

P<sub>a</sub> P<sub>a</sub> P<sub>a</sub> Mrs. Coombs, the Leader.

The Rescue Work is especially fortunate in having for its leader dear Mrs. Coombs, who was its founder in Canada.

The writer remembers her loving and efficient leadership in the initial work of Rescue, and the personal help and blessing she was to herself when first entering that work, which chief this program to her life of the personal help and blessing she was to herself when first entering that work, was to herself when first entering that work, which claimed thirteen years of her life.

Mrs. Coombs has for years battled with fragile health, and we would like to suggest that the Great Physician may be requested this week to give her more physical strength with which to combat the difficulties and bear the burdens which are inevitable in her great and manifold responsibilities.

Reasons for Success of Rescue Work.

The German writer, Goothe, says, highest hope for the worst is in loving contact with the best." Who can doubt the truth of

With the best, who can doubt the truth of this axiom?

There are four cardinal principles which are the fundamentals of this work, and to the carrying out of which, any success we may have achieved is attributable.

First Principle.-Kindness.

Ruskin says: "Think then, and some day you will feel also—no morbid passion of pity . . . but the steady fire of perpetual kindness."

have consecrated willing hands, We thoughtful minds, and loving hearts to this work, we are the friends of the unfortunate work, we are the friends of the unfortunate and lapsed classes—not the patrons. We have found a kind word—yes, even a tear of sympathy—to be more effectual than the most profound and learned expositions on the tenets of our faith. In fact, the manifestations of divine love through human sympathy has been the lear which he after mulched has been the key which has often unlocked hearts inaccessible to any other influence.

Second Principle.—Industry.

Professor George Herron tells us, "In the highest days of Greek art and philosophy, work was supposed to be fit for no one but work was supposed to be nt for no one one slaves. Since the coming of the carpenter's Son, Who is the final authority in social and political economy, work has grown in honor." And we have found one of the surest evidences of reform in the fact that those whohave tried to help have shown an anxiety to become industrious. We teach and train girls in suitable occupations, and never send them out until they are capable of carning an honest livelihood.

Third Principle.-No Compulsion.

One of the sweetest Saxon words in our vocabulary is "Home."

A lady said to me on one occasion, "But do you not lock your girls up?"

I replied in the negative.
"And then don't mean any?"

or you not lock your girls up?

I replied in the negative.

"And they do not run away?"

"It is the most rare occurance for a girl to run away from us," I informed her.

"That is strange," continued the lady; "I wonder how you manage it?"

"The answer is in my first reply: We do not compel anyone to come to us, or stay with us. We make our places as homelike as possible and they do not want to leave us, and hundreds have no other four walls they can designate by that precious word."

There are no cast steel, inflexible regulations, no iron bars, but a beautiful home influence pervades, and where girls are still living in the same city they continually come in to spend their evenings in our Homes.

Fourth Principle—No Reform Without

Fourth Principle -No Reform Without Regeneration.

Regeneration.

The atonement of Christ is the hope of the world, we believe His blood is the panacea for all the sins and misery of a fallen race. And we aim by precept and example, rather than by preaching, to bring all who come to us, from country home, prison cell, house of ill repute, or anywhere else, to a saving knowledge of the grace of God.

We have made practical application of these principles and God has owned our work, and many thousands have here resened and and many thousands have been resented and restored to happy, useful, Christian lives.

When a goldsmith fastens a chalice for a king, he first purifies the precious metal by five to rid it of base alloy, and stamps it with the assayer's approval. Then he moulds it into a fitted form for its high uses. Then he burnishes and polishes it, chasing and adornmin to the purificient of the property of the prop burnishes and polishes it, chasing and adorning it to make it histories. So our blessed Lord first tries our faith as by fire, till the dross is gone, and He can stamp it "A proved"; that is "Praise." Then He shy the vessel meet for the Master's use, by to unto every good work; that is "Hop "It to unto every good work; that is "Hop "It to he puts on the finishing touches, has taken back the luster of His own in his busing Glory."

PRINTED for Thomas B Cosmbs, Commissioner of the Salvation Army on Caracta, Newfoundland, Bernauda, and Alaska, by the Labotton Army Frating House, at Albert Street, Toronto.

Promotions-

ENSIGN HANNAH BROSTER to be ADJUTANT.

Capt. Lydia Dunster to be ENSIGN. Capt. Lottic Burtch to be ENSIGN.

Cadet Maud Ball, Newfoundland, to be Probationary-Lieutenant.

Cadet Wm. Vincent, Newfoundland, to be Probationary-Lieutenant.

Cadet Amos Stickland, Newfoundland to be Probationary-Lieutenant.

Cadet Janet Matthews, Newfoundland, to be Probationary-Lieutenant.

Cadet Julia Hussey. Newfoundland, to be Probationary-Lieutenant.

THOS. B. COOMBS, Commissioner.

For What Someone has said, "God Do You Pray? reads our character in our prayers. What we love best, what we covet most, that gives the key to our hearts." Under the light of this searching truth we may well pull ourselves up for a closer scrutiny. What is the absorbing subject of your petitions? Souls, or self? What you love best you ask for most. Amid the priceless opportunities of summer's camp and out-door cam aigns, what lies nearest your heart as the sost coveted divine gift?

The Burden Cone thing singled out the Lord.

some of God's prophets as men aloof from their fellows.

Not their skill, eloquence, policy, nor even sacrifice altogother-but just this fact, that the burden of he Lord was upon them. So we find Jerem th weeping day and night in an agony of ntercession for his people; Ezekiel sitting, speechless with sorrow, for seven days, among the captives while the fountain of Godly sympathy flowed through him to those to whom he was sent to admonish; Daniel, set upon his knees at the touch of the divine hand, fasting and praying three full weeks over his nation's sin, until the gracious answer of peace reached him, brought by the angel through conflicting hosts of spirits, and the ultimate triumph of God's Kingdom was assured. These are the kind of burden-bearers wanted in Canada to-

"Holy Ann's" Promotion.

"The memory of the just is blessed." To have had personal intercourse with such a sainted warrior will be a treasured memory to many hearts for years to come. 'Ann's living touch with God, her child-like walk with Him, subservience to Him, implicit

th in His interest, care, ability, and perpresence at all times could not fail to 'self. Her passing was just the fallofter a full life of service. Next ose to outline part of her won-triumphs of faith, for the

The Chief Secretary's Notes.

The Commissioner returned from Winnipeg via Chicago last week. His visit to he cauadian Western Metropolis was well timed, as he was able to meet Mr. Hodson, the Foresters' representative, also Major Creighton, the best in the west in connection with esters' representative, also Major Creighton, who are both in the west in connection with the settlement scheme. Several matters of importance were discussed and decisions arrived at on the spot, which will be full of interest as they develop in days to come. The "Kensington" arrived on Saturday evening, having made the best passage yet recorded—she arrived ahead of schedule time. The voyage was pleasant and the nassengers

The voyage was pleasant and the passengers were disembarked without untoward incidents. Commissioner Cadman arrived in To-ronto on Tuesday night, the 25th ult., and was the guest of the Commissioner at Davisville.

Another officer, who came to assist Commissioner Cadman in charge of the immigrants on the "Kensington," is Staff-Captain Carleton, son of Commissioner Carleton. The Carleton, son of Commissioner Carleton. The Staff-Captain is attached to the Emigration Staff in London, and was a timely visitor, especially in connection with the Tisdale settlers' affairs as he is cognizant of the efforts that have been made for their safe embarkation in England, and also knew of the efforts that had been made to obtain a good selection. The Staff-Captain, as far as the Salvation Army is concerned, is a worthy son of an illustrious father.

The Commissioner conducted a special noon knee-drill at Headquarters the day of his arrival in Toronto. The Staff-Captain had the privilege of an introduction to the Territorial Staff, and Commissioner Cadman made one of his fiery, pithy, and brief addresses.

Thirteen families were sent from Quebec to Tisdale to form the nucleus of what is now to Tisdale to form the nucleus of what is now known as the Foresters' Settlement Scheme. They are said to be a fine class of people. Upon their arrival in Tisdale they will be pleed upon quarter sections of land, where a house, barn, etc., are now being erected, the land being ploughed with a steam plough, and other preparations made for their future comfort and presenting. fort and prosperity.

The Winnipeg papers published an interview with Commissioner Coombs, which was in turn cabled, through the Press Agency to the other Canadian papers, concerning the future of the Immigration and Colonization Scheme. The Army is showing it is equal to a great opportunity, and the system that is in process of evolution through the present operations of the Immigration Department will soon be equal to a very great and far-reaching national work.

Mrs. Commissioner Coombs last week visited Hamilton and London Rescue Homes on inspecion business. She had a very pleasant trip to Western Ontario, and gave careful attention to all matters effecting the future welfare of these institutions. She is busy at the office every day.

The arrival of the "Kensington" was looked forward to with extreme anxiety and anticipation by a number of husbands and fathers who have come to Canada within the last twelve months, leaving their wives and children in the Old Land. The "Kensington" held a precious burden for some of them, and it was very touching to see them at the Toronto railway depot enquiring when the next train from Quebec would arrive. One, a father who came from England nearly twelve months ago, was waiting to welcome a wife and eight children whom he had not seen since they parted. He is doing well, and his appearance gave evidence of prosperity.

ance gave evidence of prosperity.

The opening of Camp Meetings at Dufforin Grove was attended with much blessing. There was a good crowd on Saturday night, and on Sunday the tent was filled, both afternoon and night, despite a showery day. It was a very good beginning in the opinion of those who were present, who had responsibility for the success of the Camp Meetings.

Brigadier Taylor is to be congratulated

Brigadier Taylor is to be congratulated upon the arrangements he made. The plan of the camp is very satisfactory. The Auditor-ium tent will held about 1,000, and is surrounded by other tents, both small and great. It is a "Training College" under caavas, and the ordi ary session of the Training College is being concluded there. The meetings during the week were also very successful.

Brigadier Collier is gone on furlough to West Ontario. He continued very weak up to the time of his leaving Orillia, but chere is every hope that a complete, change will restore him speedily. The Brigadier has worked very hard in the New Ontario Division. Major Rawling, his successor, will have welcome meetings on Sunday, July 8th.

Promotion to Glory of Holy Ann.

Our hearts were filled with sorrow when the information reached us that Aun had been stricken with paralysis, and could not live. That was on Tuesday, and on the Thursday, evening following she passed away. Her's was a wonderful life, having reached 100 years, and yet to see her in a meeting she might have been taken for very little more than half that age. She always had a gushing testimony and was filled with the love and nower of God continually. She was a woman of great faith. She knew-how to appropriate the promises of God, and as a consequence had many remarkable answers to prayer. She was a joyful Christian. We never remember being downcast and gloomy, but ever Our hearts were filled with sorrow when was a joyful Christian. We never remember being downcast and gloomy, but ever looked upon the brightest side. The joy of the Lord was her strength. She loved her Bible; it was her compass and comfort.

The funeral service was held in the Berkeley St., Methodist Church, which was the last place the dear old lady attended prior to her death. Hundreds of friends and sympathizers death. Hundreds of friends and sympathices were present. For an hour before the service the remains were viewed by many who knew. her, Commissioner Coombs and the Salvation Army were represented by Licut-Colond. Pugmire. The Colonel and Capit Mardallyng. sang together

Face to face shall I behold Him, Far beyond the starry sky; Face to face, in all His glory, I shall see Him by-and-bye."

After which the Colonel made some kindly references to her life. Ann was very partial to the Commissioner, and used to call him "The man after God's own heart." Af the

"The man after God's own heart." At the time of her death and funeral he was out of the city, but a message was read from Mrs. Coombs by Colonel Pugnire as follows:

"Our departed sister was valiant for the truth—a real mother in Israel, a devoted Christian, and follower of Jestis Christ. The world is poorer, but heaven is richer by her death."

The Rev. M. I. Pearson Pastors Ing. Sal-

The Rev. M. L. Pearson, Pastors jno Sal-The Rev. M. L. Pearson, Pastors jno. Salmon and Rolfe, and others, spuke. It was a most impressive service. She looked beautiful as she lay peacefully in the casket, the plate of which read: "Ann Preston, aged 100 years."

The remains were interred in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, in the family plot of Mrs. Ledlow, with whom Ann lived at the time of her death. She is absent from the body, but present with the Lord. We expect to meet her again in

Forging Ahead in South Africa.

Following on the great Self-Denial triumph; new openings are being immediatel made at Heilbron, in the Orange River Coiony, and Vrededorp, in the Transyaal.

Brigadier Palstra is ready with a couple more openings as soon as officers are available.

Added to these, Kenilworth has been suc-cessfully opened by Acting-Commissioner, Richards, and officered from the Training

Cape Town III. corps, which for years has been on the streets, now houses of a hall of its own. The disc is the best and most populous of Cape town, and at the opening the hall was a ward.

The spirit the onward Whether it b corps operati carefully-plan in the hospita Social Institu ardent spirit everywhere n Salvationis to draw the cupon them a claims, and control This summaker had a page to the control of the cont

under the lea perfected the of their poss modate some with a picti dozen or so, Cadets in so Staff, and a T. H. Q. facilities fo amongst the stroll under recline in g grass.

Besides the their own re lights to wh froward to i tive, and the ureable bles many lives

Saturday

The most opening of gathered in ing. A spin and one feld together for poses—their —saving so acter of a to the grea Colonel Ky Licut.-Colon timony ine briefly, mo mony, and a wholesale for a fresh l ing of pow-

Sunday M Stump S

The day large open stump on lently for a tion stump Cadets, all carnestness the Chief is signal for the headed by party of S
where a re progress. ( Staff Office by whose use the pro Horn had Ezckiel, L testimonic he Anditorand is surll and great canvas, and ing College eetings dus-essful.

furlough to erv weak 10 but there is a will restore worked very ve welcome

loly Ang.

Offow when on had been the flursday way. Her's reached 100 meeting she little more ad a gushing ite love and vas a woman appropriate eon sequence praver. She er remember y, but ever The joy of he loved her mfort. n the Berkewas the last prior to her sympathizers e the service y who knew d the Salva-leut.-Colonel api. Mardali Him.

some kindir very partial to call him rt." · At the e was out of follows: , a devoted Christ. The icher by her ors Jno. Sal-e. Ii was a e. Ii was a oked beauticasket, the on, aged 100

At. Pleasant Irs. Ledlow, of her death, present with her again in ## frica.

ial triumph, el - made at Colony, and h a couple

s been suc-Training

or years has of a hall of and most he opening

Meetings.

A Promising Opening-The Chief Secretary in Command, Supported by the Territorial and Training Staff-An Aggressive and Vigorous Campaign-Bubbling Enthusiasm-A Dozen Captures.

The spirit of aggression has ever marked the onward march of the Salvation Army. Whether it be in its every-day and all-season corps operations, or our more brilliant and carefully-planned special eampaigns, or within the hospitable walls of Rescue Homes and Social Institutions—the same indefatigable, ardent spirit of pulling men out of the fire is everywhere manifest.

everywhere manifest.
Salvationists have learned of their Master

Salvationists have learned of their Master to draw the crowds in the open-air, and urge upon them an immediate surrender to His claims, and choice of His service.

This summer's series of Camp Meetings have had a good launch at Dufferin Grove, under the leadership of the Chief Secretary. Brigadier Taylor and his willing Staff had perfected the arrangements within the limits of their possibility. A large tent, to accommodate some thousand persons was erected, with a picturesque hackground of another dozen or so, where are encanned the sixty with a picturesque background of another dozen or so, where are encauped the sixty Cadets in session, as well as the Training Staff, and a few courageous comrades from T. H. Q. The Grove furnishes delightful facilities for impromptu open-air work amongst the crowds of camp-followers, who stroll under the shade of its tall trees, or recline in groups on the downey carpet of grass.

Besides this, however, the Army's annual protracted Camp Meetings there have won their own reputation, and are one of the de-lights to which Canadian Salvationists look froward to in the summer time,

This year's program is particularly attractive, and the first week-end's meetings, reported below, contain evidences of immeasureable blessings destined to flow out into many lives as a result of the campaign.

Saturday Even ag's Opening Service.

Saturday Even 1g's Opening Service.

The most splen id weather attended the opening of the Cr up, and a goodly crowd gathered in the la ge tent for the first meeting. A spirit of crep carnestness prevailed, and one felt that the Salvationists had come together for none other than business purposes—their busines and the King's business—saving souls. The meeting took the character of a consect tion service preparatory to the great even a which were to follow. Colonel Kyle was in command, assisted by Lieut-Colonel Pugnaire, who led a bright testimony meeting for a portion of the time. Several of the officers from T. H. Q. spoke briefly, mostly giving their personal testimony, and the first Camp Meeting closed by a wholesale comine forward of all who wished for a fresh baptism of the Spirit and a renewing of power for service in the coming campaign.—S. A. C.

Sunday Morning's Holiness Campaign — Stump Speeches—Holiness Testimonies, and Two Surrenders.

asid Two Surrenders.

The day's proceedings were opened by a large open-air meeting held around an old stump on the grounds, which served excellently for a pulpit. Onte a number of salvation stump speeches were delivered by the Cadets, all characterized by a spirit of great carnestness and burning zeal. The arrival of the Chief Secretary and Mrs. Kyle was the signal for the service inside to commence, and, headed by the Dovercourt band, the whole party of Salvationists marched to the tent, where a real holiness meeting was soon in progress. On the platform were a number of Staff Officers from T. H. Q., also Mr. Rundie, by whose kindness the Army is privileged to use the property once more. After Brigadier Horn had read the watchman's chapter from Ezekiel, Lieut-Colonel Pugmire called for testimonies bearing directly on sanctification.

A number testified to the experience, and a marked impression was made by the clear ring of evidence given by living witnesses. Mrs. Kyle then arose and gave a very clear and convincing testimony. She is a thorough believer in holiness, and rejoiced to be able to testify "to the glonious power of the Son of God being able to destroy sin in the human heart, and make it possible for believers to live in the smile of God constantly."

The Colonel followed up this straight attack by directing a plain question from God's

The Colonel followed up this straight attack by directing a plain question from God's Word to the hearts of the unsanctified. "Wilt thou be made clean?" was the query of the moment. He expressed a desire that these meetings should be the means of reviving the doctrine and experience of holiness, for he constantly met people who were backstiders from it, and consequently are powerless Christians, whose miserable experience might be summed up as follows be summed up as follows-

"Oh, for the peace I once enjoyed, Its memory haunts me still; Within its place an aching void The world can never fill."

In response to Lieut.-Colonel Pugmire's ap-peal, two men held up their hands asking for the prayers of godly people, one finally making his way to the penitent form to surrender himself completely to the will of God and be made clean. The other was dealt with where he sat, and before he left professed to find peace also.

Sunday Afternoon.

The open-air, conducted by the Chief Secretary, was ent short by rain, but was not lacking in fire and enthusiasm.

Notwithstanding the wet and threatening clouds, a good crowd gathered in the tent. The meeting, from the first song, given out by Brigadier Taylor, was marked with the spirit of enthusiasm. Brigadier Horn and Captain Lightbourne prayed. Cadet Pollett and Sister Simpson sang a duct. Staff-Cant Attwell Lightbourne prayed. Cadet Pollett and Sister Simpson sang a duet. Staff-Capt., Attwell read the Bible lesson. Brigadier Taylor led the testimonies, of which there were an abundance, and of the right kind. Adjt. Owen soloed, and the General Secretary, Lieut.-Colonel Gaskin, spoke, taking his subject from the lesson read by Staff-Capt. Attwell. The Colonel gave a most helpful and edifying address.

address.

The Chief Secretary, who was in charge, brought the meeting to a good finish. The tide is steadily rising, and the Camp Meetings bid fair to be a source of great spiritual power and soul-saving.-J. R.

Sabbath Evening in the Grove.

At the preceding open-air service, where the Cadets made the most of their opportunities from the top of an old tree stump, a large crowd gathered, held at least by the carnesmess, if not the cloquence, of their oratory. There was no uncertain ring about the testimonies, nor of the old-time Gospel truths uttered. The Dovercourt band furnished the uttered. The Dovereourt hand furnished the music, for their corps, more than any other in the city, most distinctly reaps the benefit of this special effort. The soldiery, therefore, turned out in good force, and went in for heartily enjoying their privileges.

It was soon evident that the inside service would be a time of heavy firing. Enough Staff surrounded the Chief Secretary to run two dozen separate meetings enthusiastically. When, therefore, all were focussing their earnest prayers, petitions, appeals, and faith upon this one audience it could not be other than a powerful occasion.

Colonel Kyle is one of those leaders who delights in employing as many as possible of delights in employing as many as possible of the comrades of all grades around him. Var-iety, both in thought and character, was, therefore, a feature in each of his meetings. On this occasion Brigadier Taylor lined out the opening song. Serge, Marshall, of the Printing House, stormed heaven, entreatthe Printing House, stormed heaven, entreating blessing, followed by Mrs. Colonel Pugmire. A duet from two sisters preceded Lieut. Colonel Gaskin's Bible reading. Then Brigadier Southall fired some heavy shot in unbeliever's hearts. A mellowing solo from Capt. DeBow drove it home. An interval of music, announcements, etc., and Captain N. Coombs was on her feet. Her theme was the Blood. One of the tender, heavenly little choruses sandwiched between prayers, earlier in the meeting, had been—in the meeting, had been-"Only the Blood can Save."

The Captain's talk drove that truth deeper down. Colonel Kyle followed with a masterly, down. Colonel Kyle followed with a masterly, address, proving from past and present that a man's belief—his faith, indeed—influences and determines his conduct. Practical illustrations from discoverers, whose faith had led them to toil—and even the sacrifice of their lives—to attain their object, were vividly, drawn, and then the great Apostle Paul's own testimony formed the basis of urgent appeal, Mrs. Colonel Kyle was the next speaker, a touching duet having been reindered by Lient.-Colonel Pugmire and Capt. Mardall. Her address was directed to the conscience, and led up to the mercy seat.

Her address was directed to the conscience, and led up to the mercy seat.

During the prayer meeting Colonel Pugnire held the bridge, seconded by Adit. Owen Staff-Capt, Fraser worked among the penitents, and a great deal of earnest, hand-to-hand, heart-to-heart, personal dealing went on all over the large tent. On the outside of it the Colonel had a large missen audience. it the Colonel had a large missen audience. Conviction was deep; many were wounded; some wept; others battled back their feelings, whilst the fishers' symmathy and desire for them grew into veritable soul-burden. Some thirteen surrendered, although that number merely represents a fringe of the actual work accomplished by the Spirit of God.

Later meetings will gather many of the Later meetings will gather many of the wounded in doubtless.

Meetings in Central Prison, Mercer and Asylum.

Lieut-Colonel Pugmire, assisted by Staff-Capt. Fraser and Capt. Mardall, conducted the services in each of the above prisons on Sunday afternoon last, Ai the Central Prison thirty-three nien signified their desire to lead a different life, and asked for the prayers of the officers. A mollowing influence fell upon the meeting as the Colonel and Capt. Mardall sang "Tace to Face with Christ, My Saviour." At the Mercer there were thirty women presert at the meeting. Twenty-five of these were thoroughly broken down, and amid floods of tears expressed their desire for salvation.

Mrs. Staff-Capt. Fraser conducted the meeting in the asylum, and reports a very good

Among the Mill Hands.

Readers of the War Cry will be interested to know that Colonel Pugmire, assisted by, Capt. Mardall, conducted a service at 7 a.m., on Saturday morning last, with the employees of Mr. Greey, Mill Furnishing Co., on Church of Mr. Greey, Mr. Furnishing Co., of Cultural St., Toronto.

Mr. Greey has a nice little chapel on the same premises, where he has a religious service with his men every week.

Nearly too men attended the meeting, and the Colonel, after singing one of his beautiful solos, gave a very interesting and instructive talk on the Prison Work of the Salvation Army, etc. The Captain also sang, accompanied by the guitar, and the men showed their appreciation of the whole service in a marked manner.

The Rev. Mr. Salmon was also present to read from the Word of God.

May God prosper Mr. Greey, who has taken such a bold stand for God even in his busi-

GENESIS IN NEW ZEALAND.

(To our frontispiece.)

By Major Cutler.

The history of New Zealand reads like a drama. It is astonishing that so easy a conquest should have been made-despite the fact of military engagements on record-in the light of the noble, fighring qualities of the original possessors of the country.

Where did the Maoris come from?" is a question more easily asked than answered. Away in the distant past, the canoes of the brave Polynesians sailed into the unknown, discharged their living freight, and some re-

Probably something that is unrecorded happened. The distant comrades were forgotten by their fellows, and thus, maybe, comes the Maori.

It is said that for some 600 years the isolated emigrants had been unvisited from the outside world.

The French, Portnguese, and Dutch each claim the honor of discovering New Zealand. Whatever may have been done previously, we are best acquainted with the recorded fact that Captain Abel Jansen Tasman anchored in Cook Straits, during December, 1642. Captain Cook, later, landed in "Poverty"

Captain Cook, later, landed in "Foverty" Bay (October, 1769). He re-named the is-lands and called them New Zealand.

Thus the outer world introduced itself to the Maori-a fine, noble, dark-skinned savage and cannibal, as found by the explorers. It is to the credit of the native race that the Maori early saw the advantage of civilization. By the famous treaty of Waitanzi (January, 1840) the Maoris ceded to Queen Victoria for ever the right of government over the whole of the islands.

The history of massacre and war and blood-shed we need not here dwell upon. There were blunderings and wrong-doings on both sides, until, it is soldiers practical ecorded, that even British refused to shoot the brave Maoris who stor-their lands and I facing death in defence of

mes. There are hon districts, streets colony. Probabl ed names associated with and monuments in the in the hurry of everyday onsider how important and colony. Probablifie, few pause to useful were the sc vices of the statesmen and others whose nar appreciated their as are so familiar, or how nemory should be for the fairs by which so plentiful wise direction of and desirable a he stage was secured for later generations to enjoy,

Gospel Gleams-A Notable Christmas Day

Some ninety years ago the first missionary landed in New Zealand — the R.v. Samuel Marsden, We are told that "Mr. arc told that "Mr. Marsden opened his spiritual crusade, at the Bay of Islands, the Bay of Islands, on Christmas Day, 1814. The natives had made rule preparations for the event by enclosing half an aere of land with a fence, erecting desk in the centre, covered with native mats died black, and mats died black, and mats died black, and using as sears for the Europeans some bot-toms of old cances, which were placed on each side of the pulpit. "Mr. Marsden preached from the passage in St. Luke: 'Be-loid, I bring you good tidings of great joy.'" Thus Christianity faced again the strong-holds of darkurs, and heathenism. Other missionaries foll wed, and the foundation of the religion of Jesus Christ was duly laid.

The Army's Advent.

April 1st, 1883, is a historic date in the April 18t. 1883, 18 a mistoric date in the records of our work in the colony. Then it was that Captain Pollard and Lieutenant (now Colone!) Ted Wright opened the attack at the celebrated Fountain in Dunedin.

at the ecceptated Fountain in Dunedin.

Flaming announcement had been made of the "bombardment" to take place. The crowd mustered in strong force, and—could buriesque apparently be carried further?—a could be a found to the country of the country couple of mere striplings commenced to sing a hymn! Yet the fact contained all that the a nymn: Let the fact contained an that the world, and even the church, have been slow to learn before and since, that it is "not by might," but "by My Spirit, saith the Lord."
The openings at Christchurch, Wellington, and Auckland, as well as in the less populous places, were characterized in the same way.

places, were characterized in and same way. People gathered in hundreds and thousands; the few confounded the mighty, and, while some newspapers succeed and misrepresented the motive and effort, the enigma of a growing and mighty work was astonishingly ap-parent to friend and foe.

During the twenty-three years of the Army's work in the colony there have been all the elements that are incidental to a live concern and real var. Cold membership might be compared to inorganic matter, but soldiership of the Army is an active, restless service in which the soul is the arena for the play of supernatural powers. Because human nature is what it is, there must ever be in such a case the evidences of spiritual war.

What giorious triumphs are included in the twenty years' salvation war in the colony! What mighty victories over sin! What deliverances from the evil one, and what noble heroes and heroines the recording angel has inscribed on heaven's roll of honor! Also what tragedies, what defeats Satanic guile and numbers who once "ran well"! Such incidents are inseparable from spiritual war, but, alas! for those who lose their spiritual inheritance through being switched from seeking the eternal possessions to the pursuit of temporal and temporary things.

Throughout the colony a grand work has been and is being done. Hand-in-hand our spiritual and social work progresses, and in spirit of unswerving loyalty to its divine call to existence our Army goes forward.

50 50 50

What Ioneliness is more lonely than dis-

Things won't turn up in this world unless somebody turns them up.

Lieut.-Colonel Reid

Farewells from Ireland ofter Ten Months' Hasful Work

Just as Lieut.-Colonel Minnie Reid-was becoming personally known to the British Field Staff, in virtue of her being Provincial commander of Ireland (for the greater part commander of freshind (for the greater part of her twenty years' experience has been spent on the continent), she farewells from the Green Iste, much to the disappointment of her comrades there. Her appointment, tentucing ago, to Ireland, created more than usual interest. Only once before has Ireland had a woman as its chief officer, and that was in the days when a P. C. was more of an evangelist than an administrator of affairs.

It is well known that, though Ireland loves the Army—and there are no more determined and fiery Salvationists than the Irish—the. command has its peculiar difficulties, demanding from a leader a rare amount of tact, wis-dom, faith, and daring. Lieut.-Colonel Rid has won her way in the affections and confid-ence of her corps by the exhibition of these admirable qualities.

To the agreeable surprise of those familiar with the obstacles, the Colonel has been especially fortunate in promoting building and renovation schemes, while equally successing in encouraging our up-to-date aims with re-Spect to the young people's branch of the war. But the chief joy of her soul—and those who have actively fought on such fields as she has done in Italy and Belgium will best inderstand that joy—was the fact that during her stay she saw several of her corps revived, and stay sine saw several of her corps retwen, am many souls won for the redeemer's Kingdom. The Colonel was given a racking and char-acteristic send-off, Staff-Captain Batson em-phasizing the chief points of progress in ire-land during her direction of affairs, and con-certulating her won, the still wider subter of gratulating her upon the still wider sphere of influence that lies before her.

Arrows from Mrs. Kyle's Quiver.

"There is no whip with so mighty knots

in its cords as the conscience.

"Secret thoughts even, will have to be given an account of to the great Judge." Your only hope is this Christ.

"It is no good clutching at a straw."

"The golden chain of salvation has been lowered to you by Christ Himself."

"Gethsemane—so dark to Him, but so deer.

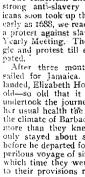

a, e, e,

God has done more for you than for the people in olden days. To them He sent His prophets and angels; to you He has sent His own Son.

This is the day when we want to substantiate what we believe by personal testimony.

—Colonel Kyle.

GEORGE

There were a great Barbadoes. They for larger portion of the sidered probable that lished in the West Ind had been banished th America. It is quite strength to those

However, large as th West Indian Quaker become infected with George's main work order and regularity be England. Among of friends to "be very p their houses were kept was a matter of gre climate, where epider They were also "not to be said about ea

were to provide suita accurate account of h riages, and to make thealth.

health.

His advice regardin to be a man of wisdon

iously enough, many Onakers were slave h ways opposed to slav prevailed upon the h their slaves free at o greatly through havi improvident, and uns

to tell them to look or be nothing less than o

"Respecting the n "I desire them to trai the Lord, so that, wi of a family might sa house, we will serve that they would caus mildly and gently with use cruelty towards some hath been and years of servitude, the Unfortunately, thi would render slaves

tices, was not taken Indian Quakers trea they did not free ther The American and

Chapte

Dealing with

A Heavenly Meeting

A Qualter ministe them on their arrival were just in time fo going to be held to so eve of his departure ing lasted four days and heavenly one," G At its close, the lead nold a business me basiness meetings th Quakers as to the pr Friends, After al Quakers separated.

Rose Peint Summer Resert, Farry Sound, Ont.

Colonel Reid

reland ofter Ten Monting eful Work.

Colonel Minnie Reid was lly known to the British tue of her being Provincial land (for the greater part s' experience has been spent 1, she farewells from the to the disappointment of e. Her appointment, ten reland, created more ily once before has Ireland s chief officer, and that was a P. C. was more of an administrator of affairs. ere are no more determined onists than the Irish—the eculiar difficulties, demanda rare amount of tact, wisaring. Lieut.-Colonel Reid in the affections and confidby the exhibition of these

e surprise of those familiar the Colonel has been esin promoting building and s, while equally successful ir up-io-date aims with repeople's branch of the wat, of her soul—and those who ht on such fields as she has Belgium will best underas the fact that during her ral of her eorps revived, and or the redeemer's Kingdon. given a rattling and char-Staff-Captain Balson emof points of progress in Ire-irection of affairs, and conoon the still wider sphere of before her.

Mrs. Kyle's Quiver.

vhip with so mighty knots the econscience."

the econscience, will have to be of to the great Judge."

the is this Christ."

clutching at a straw."
hain of salvation has been y Christ Himself." so dark to Him, but so deser more for you than for the ays. To them He sent His sle; to you He has sent His when we want to substant eve by personal testimony.

GEORGE FOX.

S S THE RED-HOT OHAKER.

Chapter XVI. Dealing with Laz Quakers.

There were a great number of Onakers in Barbadoes. They foruned a large, if not the Barbadoes. They foruned a large, if not the Inger portion of the population. It is considered probable that Quakerism was established in the West Indies by the Quakers who had been banished there from Engiand and America. It is quite certain that it owed its strength to those unfortunate prisoners. However, large as their nueetings were, the West Indian Quakers had grown lax, and become infected with worldliness. It was George's main work to try to get the same order and regularity here as was enforced in England. Among other things he warned friends to "be very particular in seeing that their houses were kept spotlessly clean." This was a matter of great importance in that There were a great number of Onakers in was a matter of great importance in that climate, where epidemics were so common. They were also "not to permit unkind things to be said about each other, whereby the enemy had cause to blaspheme," Then they were to provide suitable eemeteries, keep an accurate account of births, deaths, and marriages, and to make their wills when in good neatin.

His advice regarding the slaves showed him to be a man of wisdom and penetration. Curiously enough, many of the West Indian Quakers were slave holders. George was always opposed to slavery, yet he knew if he prevailed upon the West Indians to set all their slaves free at once, they would suffer greatly through having no means of livelihood. To turn a large number of uncducated, improvident, and unskilled people loose, and to tell them to look out for themselves, would be nothing less than cruelty.

"Respecting the negroes," writes George,
"I desire them to train them up in the fear of "I desire them to train them up in the lear of the Lord, so that, with Joshua, every master of a family might say: 'As for me and my house, we will serve the Lord.' I desire also that they would cause their overseers to deal mildly an gently with their negroes, and not use eruel. 'towards them, as the manner of some hatt been and is, and that after certain vegrs of synthus them they chould set them feer.'

years of servitude, they should set them free."
Unfortt rately, this wise advice, which would ret ler slaves little more than apprentices, was not taken, and though the West Indian O akers treated their slaves kindly,

they did rat free them.
The Averican and English Quakers held strong an i-slavery views, and the Americans soon ook up the matter in earnest. As a protest against, slavery to the Philadelphia A carly Meeting. They never ecased to struggle and protest till every slave was emanciated.

pated.
After three months in Barbadoes, they sailed for Jamaica: Here, soon after they landed, Elizabeth Hooten died. She was very old—so old that it was a marvel she ever undertook the journey. She seemed quite in her usual health the days before she died, but the climate of Pertury the climate of Barbadoes had also told on her, more than they knew at the time. George only stayed about seven weeks in Jamaica before he departed for Maryland. They had a perilous voyage of six or seven weeks, during which time they were almost starved, owing to their provisions running out.

A Heavenly Meeting of Four Lays' Duration.

A Quaker minister, John Burneyate, met them on their arrival, and told them that they them on their arrival, and told them that they were just in time for a meeting which was going to be held to say farewell to him on the eve of his departure for England. This neeting lasted four days! It was a "very large and heavenly one," George says in his journal. At its close, the leading Quakers met again to hold a business meeting. It was at these business meetings that George instructed the Onakers see the principles of the Society of Quakers as to the principles of the Society of Friends. After all was over, the visiting Quakers separated. Some went in one direction, some in another, on preaching tours.

There was no people George took more interest in than the Indians. The Puritans, as a rule, looked upon them as their natural enemies. They would trade with them, but—generally speaking—treat them as friends, and brothers with immertal souls, they would not. With this feating George had not with this feating forces had no mental to the state of the second souls. With this feeling George had no sym-whateves. While in America he imnot. With this feeing George had no sympathy whatever. While in America he impressed upon his followers their duties to the red man with such good effect that as late as 1812 a historian tells us that "the best defence against the Indians was the dress of a

Police Court Work at Moose Jaw.

Police Court Missioner W. C. Clark was Police Court Missioner W. C. Clark was at Moose Jaw over the Sunday, holding meetings in connection with the Salvation Army's Police Court Mission, and on Monday morning appeared before Messrs. Saunders and Hitchcock in his official eapacity of Police Court Missioner representing the Salvation Army. Moose Jaw Court has the distinction of being the first Court in the Province having in attendance a Court Commissioner, and, further, the inauguration of the work is a good one. The first case in which the clem-good one. The first case in which the clemency of the Court was sought was acceded to, and the prisoner was allowed out on suspended sentence of three months, Mr. Clark undertaking to report to the magistrates within that time as to the prisoner's conduct.

The prisoner is a young married man of some twenty-four years, who had previously borne an excellent character, Under the stress of poverty and distressing circumstances he obtained money under false pretences. The magistrate hoped he had learned a life-long lesson. They were giving him a tences. The magistrate hoped he had learned a life-long lesson. They were giving him a chance, he said, to become an honest man, and it was for himself alone to show that he would do his part to become what he ought to be—a man, and a good husband and father. The accused left the Court with Mr. Clark.

George's Surrender.

Into the Army barracks of one of our Western eities strolled a young man, whose life record was not by any means enviable.

He had been a very wild, harum-searum fellow, and in his determination "to see the world," and "enjoy life," had become more and more hopclessly involved in wrong doing. Up to this time, however, the grip of conseience had been slack, if not benumbed, by further excesses.

Possibly heredity and environment were to blame for the man he was-in some measure, at least. But it immediate religious influences had not come his way, no man could live in a Gospel-ealightened country and pretend to be ignorant of the way of righteousness, and the follies and inevitable retribution of sia. But, as in many another case, there had been an easy yielding of character to the stronger tides of evil, which wade every young man's feet as he launches out into the world.

feet as he launeles out into the world.

Little did he think what would come of attending the Army meeting that night.

The soldiers testified, sang, and prayed with evident carnestness. Many of them were new converts, recently born into the Kingdom of oi God. The lassie officers pleaded, exhorted, and warned their hearers from hearts aflame with the large of each thereby in all the single. and warned their hearers from hearts affame with the love of souls, though in all the simplicity of every-day language. George was taken hold of mightly by the Spirit of God. As he bent his head to hide the workings of conscience, shutting out the view of his fellows around him, a vision of his own crimes arose, and conscience eried sternly,

"Thou Art the Man."

Sin had never appeared to his soul so "ex-ceedingly sinful" as at that moment. The burden of guilt was so intolerable that he longed to relieve himself by confiding it to those he felt instinctively he could trust. Remaining after the congregation had dispersed, he sought spiritual advice of the officers. It is no light matter to be a soul-adviser, but as the story was unfolded, the Captain was convinced that no peace could be established in this man's heart, nor assurance or partion come from the Saviour, until he had made a clean breast of his wrongs, and de-livered himself up to the law, whose course he

"What, give myself over to the police, and confess these things?" he cried in tormenting agony.

"Yes; you must have the courage of your convictions—do right at all eosts, and leave the rest to God."

That was too hard a task, and he turned away hugging his load of secret condemnation, with a heavier heart than before.

Some days passed ene he ventured again into the Army barraeks. Conviction had settled upon his soul in dead earnest, and

The Price of a Quiet Conscience

and God's graeious pardon, did not now seem so impossible.

As he listened again to the plan of salvation and the terms of surrender upon which God and the terms of surrender upon which God meets the repentant sinner, and applies the atoning blood to cleanse away sin-stains, he determined that, cost what it will, he would get right with God. That night he sought merey where the dying thief found it, and with noble courage forthwith went and gave himself up to the authorities with a full, frank hinself up to the authorities with a full, frank confession of his complicity.

The trial came off; witnesses were examined; evidence rendered, and sentence passed—five years in the penitentiary. It is a big slice out of robust youth and unanhood, with plenty of thinking-time. But Georgi testifies that God's grace is enough. He is daily proving the sweetness of a soul at rest, and in lieu of repining, the love of his Saviour fills his heart with peace and iay. fills his heart with peace and joy.

On a recent visit from Lieut.-Colonel Pugmire, the Prison Gate Secretary, to the Pen-itentiary, he was able to both hear and speak itentiary, he was able to both liear and speak cheering words of spiritual progress.

"I feel," said he, "that it is better to be here with a clear conscience, than outside with a bad one."

"In fact," says the Colonel, "I found him exceedingly happy, testifying to the fact that God is with him."

The Colonel was able to evoke a kindly interest in him on the part of the courteous Warden, being in possession of the details of the ease which led up to his incarceration.

DEVELOPMENT IN BRITISH SOCIAL OPERATIONS.

Some time ago arrangements were made for dealing with all sorts of salvage at some of our Social Institutions. Married men who were out of work were employed in eanyassing for old lumber that householders would be glad to get rid of. Other unemployed men sorted and repaired the stuff in the Elevators, sorted and repaired the stuff in the Elevators, after which it was sold at a nominal price to the poorest of the poor.

This scheme, Commissioner Sturgess assures us, has been most successful.

At one place the officer had to employ a traction engine to draw the salvage to our warehouse!

In another district no less than nineteen homes of the poor have been furnished by the help of this scheme; while many others are now more comfortably furnished than they, previously were.

One day a nurse ealled at one of these depots. She had just come across a poor woman practically destitute, lying on a bed that was devoid of blankets or sheets. Could the offieer lay his hands on any bedding in order to make the woman more comfortable? A visitant nake the woman more confortable? A Visit at to the salvage store furnished some sheets are a bundle of women's east-off clothing waterby met the need beautifully. The poor-ibition has was made confortable, and her bab boscopian and under far happier circumstanglers, C. H. Quate, otherwise have been the east

We have been fa-vored with a visit from our P. C., Brig-CHARLOTTETOWN, NFLD.
A Blossed Visit.

adler Glover, accompanied by Ensign Bishop adler Glover, accompanied by Ensign Bishep. On hearing that they were confing everyour was in the top shell of expectation to see them. We believe that their visit here was the means of a special message from God reaching the hearts of the un-saved. The word of God was powerfully derivated by the Brigadier, and we believe a harvest of souls is near.—Cand. Cote.

as near.—Cand. Cote.

GAMBO. We are still on the war path
They Fight Through. battling against the powers of darkness, and God is pouring out His Spirit, so that we have laid the joy of seeing twenty-two souls brought to Him. Sinday was a day of blessing. Five recruits took their stand for God and were enrolled under the Army flag, and at night five souls sought salvation. The soldiers are of the right stamp and know how to fight the prayer meeting through.—Spectator.

meeting through.—Spectator.

HAMILTON, BER. Our store of good times has not got exhausted yet. On Wednesday evening last we had a very special gathering, it being the occasion of a farewell bonquet for the officers who are leaving the island. A good crowd attended, and after a little music from the band, we all sat down to partake of the good things provided, and we spent a very enjoyable evening fagether. Addt, Graham, who has been spending a few weeks here, farewelled on Sunday night. She greatly benefited by her rest in the islands. Our prayers and best wishes follow her.—F. Moore.

HAMILTON II. Sitting week-end. Bits heads in prayers and best wishes follow her.—F. Moore.

HAMILTON II. Satiring week-end. Big break in Eight Souls. the devil's ranks. God's power made manfest in a wonderful manner. Eight souls who were bound by the devil's shains broke loose and surrendered themselves to God last Sunday—one in the holiness meeting; seven at night. Clored with a glorious wind-up. Soldiers all on are for souls. We are believing for a grand revival in the near future. We fight to win.—L. Patrick, Locut.

R. We have just had a visit from our new T. F. S., and he is all right, Ow saturday evening he gave a lantern tited, "The Way to Heaven," which the ed very much. Sunday was looked for a great dead of expectancy. We started knee-drill and truly we were all blessed. HESPELER. service entitled, people enjo ward to w with a goknee-drill and truly we were at Disseed, of God was felt in the afternoon and
ags. The Rev. Mr. Morrow and Mr. s, Duckworth and Hall, and some com-dail, were with us, and God came very omrades fought well to the close of the 1 one backslider returned to God.—E. The pow-Henry, Co. rades from near. The merting, a Proctor, HUNTSVI LE.

HUNTSVI LE. Since last report we have seen seventeen souls at the cross, some of whom had never been saved before. Find them are taking their stand as soldiers, an no doubt we will get a few Candidates as well. Whave welcomed the family of one of our bandsmen, areo. E. Jones, into our corps from the Old Land. God bless them: We have also had a visit from our new T. 6. S. Easign Pools, with his service. The Boy Martyr. Which is among the best shown here, and should be well received all round the Province. The band is down grandly and is giving some good musle. Bro. W. G. L. Hunt is desire for a gng time to have a band at Hantsville. We extend an invitation to any working man to try Huntsville for work. We are in for deing our best for God and souls.—Adji. W. E. Persons.

INVERNESS. We have gigt had another

Since last report we have seen

Huntsville for work. We are in for doing our best for God and souls:—Adjt. W. E. Parsons.

!NVERNESS. We have just biid another An Outpost Affair, visit from our D. G. Adjt. Allan configuration of the form from Port Hood. Bro. Currie, who was converted in the first in-sing Adjt. Allan conducted in Inventes, and afterwards became a solder here, has now returned, after an absence of six mentils. As we marched to our open-our stand a large crowd gathered, attracted by the cornet and drum, and islemed attentively. They also gave a good collection. At the indicon neeting the address of the Adjustant was much appresisted. Next morning Easkin Rednards and Capt. Crowell accompanied the D. O. to Port Hood, where an open-our was held in from of the Court House, a large growd assembling to listen. The evening meeting was well attended. On Thursday morning the Adjustant, Ensign, and Lebeumant started for Mabou. After driving a number of miles over a very rough road they reached Mabou Harbor and crossed to the other side on the ferry. After walking a distance of two miles Mabon was reached. Although fe-ling rather thed they went in to make the most of the v opportunity, and gave the people a real Salvation meeting. Ensign Richards had be hood of being the first woman officer to visit Mabou, and hers was the first Army bonnet that had been seen in the place. Very early the next day they arrived at Port Hood, looking rather tired. Although there were no visible results at acher meeting, yet we believe that the good send sown will bring forth much fruit.—Salvationist.

much fruit.—Salvatonist.

LiPPINCOTT. On Sunday, the 17th, the Cadets Two Souls. farewelled from us. Each one in turn spoke a few words and all expressed their gratitude to God for the many blessmass received while in the corps. They have done ead cervine at Littinoott and impress everyone as a happy, enthusiastic lot of lads, whose sole aline is to giterify God and extend His Kingdom. May the Lord grant them success. Adjt. Habkirk save a thrilling address on the treachery of Judas, illustrating it by many anecdotes drawn from his own experience, and in the prayer meeting which followed two souls sought the forgiveness of Christ.

ST. JOHN'S I. Last Sanday we had the pleasure.

perloned and in the prayer meeting which followed two souls sought the forgiveness of Christ.

ST. JOHN'S I. Last Sanday we had the pleasure Five Souls. of welcoming into our midst Adjt. and Mrs. Cameron. Since the breakdown of Adjt. Williams, Staff-Capt. and Mrs. Cameron. Since the breakdown of Adjt. Williams, Staff-Capt. and Mrs. the office. They have labored bravely, and many souls have been blessed, and a number have been won for the Kingdom. We are glad to have such old and tried warriors in our midst as the Adjutant and his wife, yet we are sorry that the Staff-Captain and Mrs. Morris conducted the welcome meetings, which were a great success, and in spite of the many other attractions, the crowds were all that could be desired. No one falled in trying to make the Adjutant feel that the warm-hearted people he had come amongst appreciated his presence in their midst. From the carly knee-drill to the finish of the alight meeting we felt very much of the Spirit of God in our midst. The Adjutant's subrring and heart-searching talks reached the hearts of all. We were glad at the end of the day to see five dear soule crying to God for mercy, and have every reason to believe that they proved the promises of God to be true from the bright testimonies that they gave before going home.—X. Y. Z.

OTTAWA I. Just a few items of special interes of before gaing home.—X, Y, Z.

OTTAWA I. Just a few items of special interest Four Soule: regarding the labors and changes at the corps. Bandmaster Harris (late of England) succeeds Capt. Adeit as leader of our brass band, which now numbers fourteen pieces. Five commodes from Cornwall were with us last Sunday, who considerably strengthened our fighting forces. On the previous Thursday evening a musical meeting was held and the usual good time resulted. The Bandmaster gave some strring selections on the concertina, of which he is a master player. During the week four souls have knelt at the meroy seat seeting pardon. Two of them are the brother and sister of one of our soldiers, to whom it was a very cheering event, as indeed it was to all of us. The visit of the Temple Band was a notable event, and will long be remembered by those who heart as saw, them. Their, stay, though short, was the special effort for the Master. Marching through setty, they frew the attention of all by their spindle music, and, at the Home for Incurables, they are several selections, which were much appreciable of the high character. Vocal and barjo selections, see given by different members of the band, and various officers spoke between the selections. Adjt. Jenning especially referred to the Immigration work of its analysis.

Prench.

PORT DE GRAVE.

Five Souls.

Five Souls.

For a substant to see Capt, Noel at the front once again, Owing to her illness she has been deprived of meetings for feature weeks, but thanks be to God for raising her beatth again. She still bears the message of substant too not the sinner. We can rejoice were study souls converted to God, and pray for many who are under deep conviction. May God bloss our efford and help us to be warriors.—Lieut M. Bail, for Capt. Noel.

SaskATOON. The Salvation Army in Saskstee Eight Souls. is a real live concern. During the past week eight souls have been saved, and eleven more have been enrolled as golders. We have just had a visit from Brigadie Burditt and Adjt, Alward, which was enloved by all-furewell orders have come and we shall take with us pleasant memories of the battles fought and the victories won while here. We turn our faces to wards Medicine Hat, looking forward to fresh victories there.—Enskyn Howcroft, Lieut Eillott, C. Og.

wards Medicine Hat, looking forward to treat metrics there.—Ensign Howcroft, Lieut, Elliot, C. 0g.

SPRINGHILL MINES. The week-end meeting Many Farewells. Were led by Easign and Im.

from here, we are sorry to report. We will piles them they much, as they have done a great deal of god during their stay of seven months. On Thursdright the Women's Ald gave them a farewell to, under the direction of Mrs. Wetherbee and Star Bunton. We are loaling two of our soldlers sharp, namely, Band Sergt, and Mrs. Roberts, who are going to take charge of a corps in the States. The bands in appendid order spiritually. Capt Emery is holding for or while, but forewells on the 2th.—S. E.

UXERIDGE. God's Spirit is working upon the hearts of the unsaved, and softe are yielding. God was very near all far Sunday, and at night two souts sought and found pardon, one being a backsilder for some years, list estimony last Saturday he said that it was the first Saturday in fifty-three that he did not have a drial. Praise God, He in able to take away the dealer of the working there in a western of the strength of the dealer of the working there in a western of the working there in a western of the strength of the working there in a western of the strength of the working there in a western of the strength of the st drink.—G. C.

WINGHAM. God is working here in a weardering and control of the last four weeks only number factor they are, we believe, out-and-out for God. One converts for its last four weeks only number factor they are, we believe, out-and-out for God. One converts from veryloges in his Chriat. Cas Sanday, June IIIs, a recently converted commade gave an only little gift of God and the S. A. The dedication service was performed by Mrs. Capt. Rock, and created an inpression on the people in the hall. Our band is getting along fine, and now our Bandmaster has taken hold they begin to show the results of his training. One good sign is that they are all sinder and eager for souls. They know both sides of its ratining. They know both sides of and are now "on fire" for the Kingdom. May ged bless and prosper our band and this corps, and the great S. A. at I closed and rejoice for Capt. Rock.

Part of Nena St. (Winnipog III.) Corps with Staff-Capt. and Mrs. Taylor and Capt. Habbill.

WINNIPEG

field, but we are thing saved. On farewell meeting and Lieut. C. Mit they have been where by their pay for them we a real solder's we pray that through vation. When A sea Mills. The same are solders we have the same and the same was the same and the same are solders. vation. When A hast July, they can a new opening, a clse. They leave seven enrolled so and quarters. I by what they have YORKVILLE.

soon be forgotten the Cadets, each well message, which they related their brought to tears, of the corps and very manifest du very manifest du ways at their p shoulder any resi advisable to place every duty to the of God and for a all heartily and all heartily and delas." The meeti great blessing 1 praise and comme them to stand to vation Army, rendered a darew solo, which was services all day and Lieut. Heron a year God bles results in sout-5 done. We thank day.—See, Jarvis

The Ter

Early on Wed fell upon the ear A glance out "Jessie Bain" of be seen the bril meats of our via Landing at the
to the Opera Hor of the spectator
"can the Army plainly apparent plainly apparent ished from the runtil they see.

Crowds listen and in the Open bound for two loss rendered.
"I could lister "It is simply "I could not the words of eternity," kept m The visit of if On their part, is beautiful town as them by the m billetted.
Brigadler Tun

Hetted. Brigadier Tun s pleasing st; em; if ever th warm welcom

For A Priso

Writing from convert tells the The Spirit of renember how I My destre now I My destre now I may grow strict enourage dear servests of the act of commettill small voice in Sail, and thou to God, I am a bleased word. I ce win souts. For six month who is a bie to.

Who is able to God He ever Olson. Through the women and gir or restored to t ed by those who seem a hough short, with the fact hough short, with the should be a marked by their should for Incurables, they are were much appreciated. In the citadel was rised but have been so the band, and whips soletoms was aslections. Add J. Santiag salections work ad the hough should be mailing a so the band, and whips soletom work and the hough should be mailing a so work and the hough should be should b d was with us in might on Sunday, and we had a ed day. We were pleased ont once again, Owing to deprived of meetings for to God for raising ser to to God for raising ser to are the message of savath rejoice over seeing farid pray for many whe are Iny God bless our effert,

—Lieut, M. Ball, for Capt,

vation Army in Sacision live concern. During the c eight souls have been averbeen enrolled as and d a visit from Brigane which was enroyed by 26, ie and we shall take with the battles frought satisfies. We turn our faces to lang forward to fresh ric croft, Lieut, Filliott, Con.

The week-end needing to led by Euclin and in ornish, who are farewising report. We will missible done a great deal of good en months, On Thursday gave them a farewell its irs. Wetherbee and Sixt wo of our soldlors shall; rs. Roberts, who are going in the States. The M ly. Capt Emery is holding ells on the 24th.—S. R.

ells on the 24th—S. R. init is working upon the he unsaved, and some an 30d was very near all derive souls sought and foundation of the country of the souls sough and foundation of the the soul of t vorking there in a wonderful hough our converts to the weeks only number here, and-out for God. One wen-officership in England, He officership in England, and it. On Sunday, June 17th ade gave an only little gir the dedication service was Rock, and created in in the hall. Our hand it our Bandmaster his show the results s that they are all a ey know both sides of its r the Kingdom. May be ad and this corps, and the great S. A. at large. After straight fighting we closed and rejoiced over one soul.—Chas. Robinsen for Capt. Rock. or Capt. Rock.

THE WAR CRY.

WiNNIPEG II. It is quite a long while Remembered by Deeds. since you have heard from this corner of the battle-field, but we are still hard at the fight and souls are being saved. On Sunday last, June 11th, we mad the farewell meeting of our officers, Adjt. H. M. Scott and Lieut. C. Mirey. The parting is deeply felt, as they have been with us nearly twelve months, and have by their patience and sympathy, helped many a soul to the glorious light of God's love. White we pray for them we are going to give our new officers a real soldler's welcome to the North-End corps, and pray that through their efforts many may find salvation. When: Adjt. Scott and Lieut, Mirey came, last July, they came to a tent with some forms in it, a new opening, and no soldlers, locals, or anything else. They leave hehind them a corps of thirty-seven enrolled soldlers, nine locals, and a nice hall and quarters. They pass on, but are remembered by what they have done.—C. T.

YORKVILLE. Last Sunday night our Ca-

and quarters. They pass on, but are remembered by what they have done.—G. T.

YORKVILLE. Last Sunday night our CaFarewell to Cadets. dets bade us farewell. The soon be forgotten, especially the night meeting, when the Cadets, each in their turn left with us their favewell messags, which was sharp and to the point. As they related their different experiences many were brought to tears. Their deep interest in the welfare of the corps and the galvation of souls haz been very manifered stering their entire stay with us. Always at their post, always ready and willing to shoulder any responsibility that the Captain thought advisable to clace upon them. They discharged their every duty to the best interests of the Army. We all heartily and sincerely say, "God bless the Cadels." The meetings all day were of much power and great blessing. Many of the solders spoke words of praise and commendation to the Cadeta, admonishing them to stand fast and be true to God and the Salvation Army. Mrs. Mowat and Miss E. Simpson rendered a tarewell duet, and Blo. Vickers a farewell solo, which was greatly appreciated by all. The arrives all tay were ably conducted by Capt. Wear and Lieut. Euroo, who have now been with us nearly a year. God bless them. Although we saw no visible results in soul surving we believe much good was done. We thank God for the rich blessings of the day.—Sec. Marvis.

The Temple Band at Picton.

Early on Wednesday morning strains of music fell upon the ears of the citizens of Picton.

A glance out upon the bay showed the steamer
"Jessle Bain!" coming in, and upon her deck were to be seen the bril" ant uniforms and shining instrube seen the brit ant uniforms the small history method to try vis. erg.

Landing at the whart they lined up and marched to the Opera Ho: e, amid the queries and comments of the spectator. "What," soid a business man, "can the Army st up a thing like that?" It was plainly apparent that they could, and doubts vanished from the z. ags of those who will not believe until they see.

until they see.

Crowds listened to the open-air concert at night, and in the Opera House the people were held spell-bound for two hars while a magnificent program bound for two h are white a magnineers program was rendered.

"I could listen ill night," said one.
"It is simply nonderful!" remarked another,
"It could not eep," said a prominent citizen;
the words of the sone, "Where will you spend eternity, kept me awake."

The visit of the band was indeed a great blessing. On their part, the bandsmen were charmed with the beautiful items and appreciated the kindness shown them by the many friends with whom they were billetted.

billetted.

Brigadier Turner accompanied the band, and in Mo pleasing style acted as chairman. God bless them: If ever they are privileged to return to Picton a warm welcome awaits them.—G. V. A.

Found Peace in Jail.

" A Prisoner's Letter to the Editor.

Writing from the jail at Prince Albert, Sask, a convert tells the story of his conversion as follows:

The Spirit of God took hold of me, and I well remember how I trembled under the missity influence. My desire now is to do the Master's will, and finally to receive my reward at the last day. Fray that I may grow stong in grace and wistom. I receive much encouragement and holp from the letters which dear servasts of the Lord send me. I was very near the act of committing self-murier when I heard the still small yolds of the Lord speaking to me. I was in juil, and thought I was foraken by all, but, glory to God I am now quite different and trust in His blessed word. When my time is out I mean to work with souls.

to win souls.

For six months I have found Jesus to be a Friend
Who is able to keep me from falling, and I thank God Me ever faised a sinner like me.—Gust, E.

Through the agency of our Rescue Homes 26,398 omen and girly were last year sent to situations restored to their friends.

Sergt.-Major G. Smith, New Glasgow.

Self-Denial Enterprise at New Glasgow

We Glaswegians secured our target, which was $310. Addi. Cooper intimated from the platform that this was the easiest S.-D. campaign he ever took part in; everything and everyboxy seemed to work in harmony, which resulted in an easy win. Our Sergeant-Major, arts. even time its target, and it is a few of the boys who work in his department, but was informed that another brother had been there, before him, securing three amounts. On receiving hits information the S.-M. decided to adopt a unique plan for reaching his target, so soliciting the help of a joiner, he explained what he wanted, and the S.-D. chair was coasticuted. The joiner kindly do nated the work and material as kindly do nated the work and material as his S.-D. contribution. (Thanks, A letterer's services were then secured in the interests of S.-D. at salvation price. The first trib was to the steel works on pay-day, to gather in the fragments for Jesus.

11.04

the freements for Jerus.

At this point the S.-M.
Says the devil tempted him to return and give fe up, but he was sent on bearing his cross and securing his target in a legitimate way, without transgressing on other propie's territory. He was the subject of much comment; but, hallelujahl he smanhed his target in three hours. The following Saturday he stood on the main street, and when results were counted only a small sum was lacking to double the original target. He felt God's smile was upon him.

G. S., W. C. Cor.

Western Breezes from the Wheat Fields.

Beigadier Burditt and the writer started for a trip to the western corps. At Regina we just had time to run up to the quarters and see Capt, Pearce be-fore the train left for Saskatoon.

to the western corps. At Regina we just had time to run up to the quarters and see Capt. Pearce before the train left for Saskatoon.

Saskatoon is a fine; stowing town of about four thousand people. New buildings are being put up verywhere. A good number of Americans appear to have a lively daterest hers. The officers met us, and in a short time we were in the open-air, surrounded by a good crowd of men. The writer sang his favorite sole, "I was a wild young feilow," and the Beigndler gave a most siltring address to at test 300 men. God seemed to rivet the truth home. Tho inside meeting was good; hall crowded; platform more than nowded. How the new converts did eins! The Enisadier dedicated the Color Sergant's baby to Cod and the Army, and gave a Bible talk; subject: "Thou hast played the fool," Several desired our prayers. The officers; Ensign Howoroft and Lieut. Elliott have done well. Ere this they will have add good-bye and gone to their new appelatment.

Next day we took train for Prince Albert, a run of about 100 miles through a most beautiful country—wheat fields everywhere. We passed Duck Lake, the place where the first fight of the Northwest. Beybellion took place. At Prince Albert we were met by Bro. Wilson, of Branden fame, but who is new Secretarry of the Prince Albert Board of Trade. The rain was a little lake, which made our first meeting rather short. Sunday morning we started for the prison, where we were to speak to the prisoners. The writer road of the lost sheep; Capt. Wiley ang "There were minety and near"; the Holy Spirit from the beginning was present, and Cod bleased the word number of prisoners have been converted within prison walls, The holiness meeting was well attended. The P. O. spoke of Paul's de la afternoon and right meetings were in the the Afternoon and right meetings were in the Hall. The Mayor and Aldermen were present in the Bishop and his Curate, the Baptist and Prince Bishop and his Curate, the Baptist and Prince Albert. The Mayor, on behelf of the comed the Brigadler to Prince Albert, d a id a down very kind words of the Army and its Orita', as did also the Bishop and ministers. The B gaddes spoke on the Social Work, showing the grt, t developments the Army has made in the years past. The night meeting was the best of all. The City Hall was packed, and from the beginning the Lord blessed us. The Spirit was at work revealing sins of years. The Brigadier's subject was. "Thy rowers have brought thee unto great waters." Six souls came forward and knelt at the pentient form. Thus we ended a glorious day for Him who died to save. Brother and Mrs. Wilson were very kind, looking after our temporal needs in their beautiful home on the hill above the town. We are to have a new building in Prince Albert. Ensign Lacey expects soon to begin operations. Capt, Willey is farewelling, also Lieut Leadman, Mit. Hottic Scott is taking charge, withe the Captain goes to Sackatoon.

Monday morning, bright and sarry, we start begot to Wilmipeg. Our train being late, we had an opportunity of having a meeting at Regist. The corp. Is on the up-grade; twenty souls have been forward in the past four weeks. At the Brigadier's meeting two souls were converted and ten men held up their hands desiring prayer.—F. C. Alward, Adjt, for Brigadier Burgitt.

Kootenay Bioscope Tour.

Ensign Bloss and Capt. Qualfe Meet with Great Success Although They are Opposed by Opera Troupes, Fire Brigades, and Big Rocks.

Success Afthough Tiney are Opposed by Opera Troupes, Fire Brigades, and Big Rocks.

Having all in readiness, Ensign Bloss and your hurable servant left Vancouver on Saturday, May 28th, and after traveling all day we arrived at Revelstoke at '11 p.m. We were met and escented to the quarters by Capts. Moore and Lloyd, Lleut. Chatterson, and some of the comrades, who were all smiles and the essence of kindness during our visit. On Sunday we opened fire with seven o'clock kneedrill, which was well attended, and had a day of much blessing, the attendance and finances being excellent. On Monday and Tuesday mights we gave a moving picture exhibition, which was a fair success, apparently enjoyed by all who attended. Wednesslay morning me bearded the train for Rossland, and after fourteen hours by land and water, over mountain and valley, we succeeded in reaching the Gold City of the West, Here we found east, and Mrs. Allen in good spirits, dwelling in an S. A. mansion four or five stories high. We gave an exhibition on Felday and Saturday wights and spent Sinday having a good time in general.

Monday morning finds us still well caved and on time to catch the 7.30 train for Nolson. Speeding on down the steep grade, on switch-back, around short curves, etc., we came to a sudden stop, and heard six sherp whistles. On looking out and mathem to eatch the native of the bank on to the track. The engine was slightly damaged, but not disabled, and soon the section men were on the scene, and got the stone moved and the track sundlently repaired for us to move on. Arrivang at Nelson we found Capt, and Min. Bettly damaged, but not disabled, and soon the section men were on the scene, and got the stone moved and the track sundlently repaired for us to move on. Arrivang at Nelson we count Capt, and Min. Sundle share of the stone word and the track sundlently repaired for us to move on. Arrivang at Nelson we captured for the section men were on the scene, and got the stone moved and the track sundlently repaired for us to move on. Ar opera troupe. However, God came to our assistance, and our exhibitions were much enjoyed on both nights.

Friday morning we caught the local train at five o'clock, and shiwered with the cold for an hour or two, but finally landed in Fornie, where Capt. Beasingthwelte joined us, and after dinner we all started on a coal company's train for Coal Creek. Here we had a fine time and our exhibition was ull O. K. We packed up and returned to Fernie where we spent Saturday and Sunday. These were blessed times. The comrades are all on fire, and are just regretting the farewell of Capt. Travies, who has been in Femile for two years, and by the blessing of God has done excellent work.

Monday morning we start to retruce our steps as far as Nelson, where a musical meeting and lecream social was well attended and enjoyed immensely. Tuesday we held a consecration meeting, when several freshly consecrated themselves to God and His service.

Wednesday we press on to Greenwood, where we have an open-air as usual, and from there to the Open House for a moving pleure exhibition.

On to Grand Forks for Thuraday night, where God again favors us with success.

Fixlay we again retrace our stops, arriving again in Revolstoke at 5.15 p.m., Saturday, where we execut these stories times Saturday night and all day Sunday.

Fralse God, our tour so far has been satisfactory day Sunday.

Praise God, our tour so far has been satisfactory in every way, and apparently the exhibition has given perfect satisfaction right through. Enging Bloss is becoming quite an expert bloscoping and electricism.—Fours under the colors, C. H. Qualte, Captain.

War Cry Honor Roll.

THIS	WEEK'S CHAMPIONS.
Lieut. Thistle		4
P. SM. Mrs.	Ward	-
Scrgt. Pynn .		2

it be a rale blessin' to see how de fire am burnin', an' de boomers a-boomin' 'spite o' de storms, an' thunders, an' lightnin's vat keep splutter'in' 'way round us. Seberal komrades is risin' to de top, an' doin' fine.

round us. Seberal komrades is rishi' to de top, un' don' fine.

It alius be a pleasure for ter see dem Newfoundanders are bubbin' ober wid good wuks, an' sure enut Sergt. Prin hab got into de champion frame dis week. Dere's notes wat I hab took pertickler notice ob as well. Mrs. Adjt. Knight, at de Ambitious City, hab displayed pow'ul abbity to racch 200, ar' den Winnipes. wat is alius so busy--since dey four' out dey was "de hub"--hab four' time ter git in de lists, an' hed de N.-W. Province in de pusson ob a Leftenunt wat hab soil 200.

De W. O. P. be putty eben weck by week, an' rarely misses comin' in de lists, but dey can't cun up to dem Earsterners yit. As fer de E. O. P. maybe deys all so takin' up wid niettin' de big ships, en' immigrants, dat dey can't appear. Else maybe 'tis accordin' to dis patten--

Unavoidabl Detained.

Eastern | revince.

90 Boo ners.
Lieut. Thistle, Sydney 400
Mrs. Capt. Hargrove, Hah: x II 210
Lieut. McKergey, Moneton 180
Norman MeVicar, Glace Bay 186
EM. Cosbin, Halifax I
Capt. Holden, Charlettetown 186
CC. Boltborn, North Sydney 180
Lieut. Andrews, Dominion 145
Mrs. Marchall, Halifax I 150
Capt. Galway, St. Stephen
Sergt Irons, Windsor 129
Capt. Dalzell, Truro 175
T. Smith, St. George's 126
Sergt. Jackson, Yarmouth 120
Lieut. Turner, Glace Bay 100
Lieut, McLean, St. John III
Mrs. Capt. Urquhart, Campbellton 196
Lieut. Greenslade, Yarmouth 100
Mrs. Capt. Hargrove, Halifax H 198
Ensign Miller, Woodstock 100
Lieut, Gilkinson, New Glasgow 100
CC. Murray, Westville
Capt. Emery, Springhill 100
Capt. Tatem, St. John I
Capt. Janes, New Aberdeen, 90; Licut. Taylor

Capt. onnes, New Aberdeen, 99; Licut. Taylor, Carleton, 85; Capt. Falle, Fredericton, 85; Enslern Piercy, St. John I., 85; Capt. Brace, St. John II., 85; Capt. Glen, Newcastle, 85; Capt. Dakin, Clark's Harbor, 85; Capt. Backus, Bridgewater, 75; Lieut. Gray, Camning, 60; Alice Watts, St. John I., 60; Ensign Greenland, Chatham, 60; Capt. Cavender, Sydney, 60; Sergt. Backham, Hamilton, 65; Gertle Meikle, Londonderry, 90. erry, 50.

50 Capies.—Capt. Richards, Stellarton; Capt. Joe 50 Copies.—Capt. Richards, Stellarton; Capt. Joe Green, St. John V; Lleut. Smith, Stellarton; Lieut. Chedore, Sackville; Lieut. Wilkes, Lunenburg; Mrs. W, Wagoner, Liverpool; Lieut. Clark, Port Hood; Lieut. Stairs, Capt. White, Bridgetown; Capt. Willar, Londonderry; Sergt. McLena, Sydney; Lleut, Berry, Amherst; Capt. Jones, Hijisvoro; Sergt. Bond, New Aberdeen; Capt. Robinson, Sister Beck, Kentville; Capt. McMasters. Capt. Mckle, Reserve; Capt. Hebb, Summerside; Sister Lyons, Sister Donovan, Frederiction: Bertha Large, Chapt. Hetown; Ensign Richards, Capt. Crowell, Inverness; Ensign Clark, Sister McKean, Halifax I; Capt. Blgelow, Lieut. Winchester, Sussex; Capt. Tom Urquhart, Campbellton; Ensign Lerimer, Frederiction; Capt. Snow, Ensign Milher. Woodstock; Fred White, Falveille; Captain Walter Legge, North Head; Lleut. Rutherford, St. John V.; Sergt. Virgil, Southampton; Capt. Woodstock; Freeport, Many Frimer, Mrs. Cram. S. John II; Sergt. Smith. Halilax II.; Ella Crossman, Monchen; Capt. Jaynts. Sackville; Pla Downey, May damble, St. John I; Capt. Forsey, Sydney Mines; Capt. Newell, Parrsboro; Lleut. McEachern, North Sydney; Sergt. Ladd, Inverness; Sergt. Allan, St. John III.; Capt. Conrad, Annapolis; Capt. Donovan, Somerset; Sergt. Virgil, Capt. Murphy, Southampton, West Ontario Province.

West Ontario Province.

48 Boomers.

P. SM. Mrs. Ward, London
Sister Eva Fuller, Chatham	190
Adit, Kendall, Brantford	186
Adit, Kendali, Brandold	115
Mrs. Adjt. Bloss, Stratford
Mrs Adit, Walker, St. Thomas	100
Sarge Wimble Brantford	100
Deut. Wakefield, Dresden	100

Sergt, Winbbe, Brantford 100
Leut, Wakefield, Dresden 100
Mrs, Capt, Merritt, Leamington, 95; Capt, Pattenden, Guelph, 95; Lieut, Simpson, Guelph, 95; Capt, Horwood, Sarnia, 95; Lieut, Simpson, Guelph, 95; Capt, Horwood, Sarnia, 95; Lieut, Horwood, Sarnia, 90; Ensign LeCocq, Petrolia, 85; Mrs, Ensign LeCocq, Petrolia, 85; Capt, Glibank, Galt, 89; Lieut, Waldroff, Tilisonburg, 75; Mrs, Capt, Clinansmith, Forest, 76; Capt, Crossman, Windson, 75; Mrs, Huffman, Woodstock, 76; Sister Powers, Wallaceburg, 70; Lieut, Dobney, Farls, 70; Ensign Hancock, Simcoe, 70; Sergt, Adams, Simcedefic, Capt, Kitchen, Strathroy, 65; Lieut, Cunningham, Strathroy, 65; Lieut, Herrinton, Seaforth, 46; Mrs, Capt, Gerside, Hes, Sister Proctor, Hespeler, 58; Mrs, Capt, Barre, Essex, 55; Mrs, Furtal, Wallaceburg, 55; Ocopies,—C.-C. Nettle Lalrd, Essex; C.-C. Lizzie Hotton, Sister Watt, Ridgetown; Mrs, Capt, Kerswell, Stater Jones, Kingsville, Mrs, Ensign Pynn, Ingersolt; Capt, Matter, Cliaton; Staft-Capt, DesBriany, Stater Norbury, Stater Norbury, Stater Norbury, Stater Norbury, Stater Norbury, Stater Norbury, Stater Mothury, Staft-Capt, London; B. O. L. S.-M. Blydon, Windsor; Mrs, Thompson, Mrs, Ensign Jarvis, Ensig

Training Home Province.

36_Boomers.
Mrs. Adjt. Knight, Hamilton I	. 200
Cadet Mannion, Temple	. 130 . 125
Lieut, Proudlove, Owen Sound
Sergt, Mrs. Moore, Riverdale

North-West Province. 84 Boomers,

Lieut. McLernan, Winnipeg 1		208
Mrs. Capt. Taylor, Brandon		169
Ensign Hall, Port Arthur		145
Lieut. Mirey, Winnipeg II		125
Lient James Edmonton		125
Sieter Adama, Winnipeg L. 80: Adit. :	Byers.	Cal-
and Theret Western Winterpleasely 5	5 . Tin	aion

Stief Adains, Whithing I, 80; Aut. Dets.; Grago, Edmonton, 75; Elseut, Harris, Watzskowin, 76; Ensign Crego, Edmonton, 75; Sister Barton, Winnipeg I., 70; Lieut, Yergenson, Portage in Prairie, 80; Lieut, London, 190; Lieut, Elliott, Saskatcon, 60; Sister McWilliams, Winnipeg I., 60; Lieut, Leadman, Prince Albert, 60; Capt. Custter, Fort William, 56; Lieut, Smith, 56; Lieut, Watson, Moose Jaw, 55; Ensign Culbert, 65; Lieut, Marchand, Marchand, Smith, 56; Lieut, Watson, Moose Jaw, 55; Anisga Culbert, 55; 50 and Under,—Uncle Dan, Neepawa; Lieut, Plea-ter, Lethbridge; Lieut, Dillabough, Capt, Keeler, Kenora; Lieut, Coleman, Capt, Pearce, Regina; Mrs. Capt, Forsberg, Neepawa; Capt, Willey, Prince Al-bert; Lieut, Gstrander, Carberry; Liout, Griffith, Selkirk; Lieut, Burkholder, Dauphin; Lieut, Pulford, Calmary; Ensign Magec, Portage la Prairie; Sergi., Bell, Sergt, Holmes, Wannipes III.

nen, Sergt Holmes, Wamlpog III.

Newfoundland Province.

10 Böomers.

Sergt Pynn, St. John's II., 75; Cadet Tucker, St. John's II., 45; C.-C. Glover, St. John's II., 45; Sister, Stead, Musgravetnwn, 44; Cadet Matthews, St. John's II., 30; Cadet Vincent, St. John's I., 31; Cadet Sticker, St. John's I., 30; Cadet Vincent, St. John's I., 31; Cadet Sticker, St. John's I., 30; S.-M. Whitten, St. John's I., 37; Sergt Harris, St. John's I., 27;

At a cost of 25 cts. Japanese doctors can dress the wounds of 500 men. They use a finely powdered charcoal composed of the siery combustion of siraw in closed furnaces, and its antiseptic and absorbent qualities generally energy a rapid cure.

Tested Recipes.

Tea Cake—Beat two eggs in a season, fill the convicts sweet milk, add one cup of sugar, two oven its spoontuls of melted butter, one and three-quanter cups of flour, two teaspoonfuls baking powder. This is the most reliable and accommodating of cake Delitcious baked in invers and spread with jelk chocolate teing, or cream. May be baked in a like or small patty-pans, Poliphit.—Try placing good, plung sausages in a large dripping-pan, nouring-the butter over them, and buking in a hot oven for birty minutes. The batter is made with two cups of flows teaspoonful of sail, three eggs well beaten, and two oups of milk.

Salmon Loaf.—Welt two tablespoonfuls of butter in a gaucepun, add two eggs well beaten, two-lifts of a cup of cracker crumbs, sait and pepter of last and all the fish from one can of salmon. Remove bones and skins from salmon and add the shore mixture. Work until very fine; put it a greasely in and stew one hour. Remove while hot from tin, and when cold silce.—Contributed by Mrs. Staff-Cupt.

RELATIVE VALUE OF FRUITS FOR DIET.

Friits, contain little protein, but they are itel in carbohydrutels—augar. The pimoappie, which in thee, day is so abundant, comes, for the most part, frea Cube, where it is ploked green. It has long been noted for a certain ferment, which digests the proteids. It also acts like rennet in coagulating milt. The juice of this fruit is very wholesome, and is eccilent for people with weak digestions and for chirch. It is the fibre which is indigestible, and which causes some people to think they cannot cat the first nony form. The formant of the pimospie, which is called "bromelin," on account of its remarkable digestive powers, is sometimes used in the opicial content of "predigested foods." The juice of the plantingle, too, is noted for its specific effect on these troubles.

tien of. "predignosted foods." The juice of the planpile, too, is noted for its specific effect on here troubles.

The apple, which, for some reason, has recently become so expensive in the otites that it is now on of our food fuxuries, often lies rotting on the coming of the control of the Codet figed Cadet Hechery.

An Old Battle-

Cadets' Musical Brigade

Bradford is a lively little seven miles from Newmarket Holland River, leading to the The residents of this place hour S.-D. effort, and therefore it was only right and proper to to show the some measure our some of the members of the Ce were accordingly secured for Addit. Smith, they gave a real Methodiel school-room. The pith program was enjoyed by a Bradford is an old battlegn hatties being fought there in can estimate the good done by character.—Pattenden.

Niagara Falls Visited Musical Bri

The sail across the lake final palatial steamer, the Chippee from every standpoint. We most of our time by giving a stote delight of the many Lewiston, N.Y., where we land the "Great Gorge," where can fluest scenery in the world, in rapids, This ride was all to arrived at our destination, who have the kind triends who entertain open-airs were held at Clifton where great crowds througed ing impression was made. The Sanday morning open-air at the Lafayette Hotel, overlook coursits, and also natives of the tend to the music and singing ment. At the Union Sunday Smeeting was held, the power menifest in the surrender of noon open-air at Falls View & meeting was held, the power menifest in the surrender singing sure that good was done. At the night meeting it was were turned away unable to members of the brigade did The quartet sans one of their drinking is no the full. The home," musically illustrated, one becksidder returned. Monday morning was spent to be held at the schoolhouse to its utmost successful weet-ends of den,

PROMOTED TO

IN MEMORY OF LYLA WILF

Death has visited our circle midst a young Irlend, who loved and who often took a part is she was a bright, intelligent a loved by all who knew her, and before her. She was a comfor always willing to help and to loncly hearts. She enjoyed very much, hurrying home frepesent at them, and takin the people how God had saved by day.

the people how God had saved by day.

Very suddenly she was take being the cause, and although to save her, it was unavailing better home. Throughout he complain, but asked the Lord all. Often she would try and about our troubles," and we be and bless'ing to those who vis bed. She did not fear death, xlous that her mother should that he may be ready when it him. We believe that God will through the death of this your sympathy for the bereaved on May we all the ready to meet home.—Light, B. E. Turner.

ADDRESSES OF OUR F.

ADDRESSES OF OUR E

Toronto Hospital, 25 Esther

Toronto Hospital, 25 Esther Toronto Shelter (Women), 6 Toronto Shelter (Women), 6 Toronto Shelter (Women), 6 Toronto Shelter (Rollaria), London, Ont., Riverview Av. Hamilton, 13 Mountain Ave Ottawa, 348 Daly Ave. Montreal, One, 460 Selgneu Montreal Women's Shelter, 6 St. John, N.B., 36 St. James Halifax, N.B., 48 Gottingen f. St. John's, N.B., 26 Crook Si Wiminjee, Man, Grace Hospital, Charley, N.W.T. Vancouver, B.C., 1338 Pende Note.—No percon—should b without first having seceries' received. All Communication the Enterp.

Recipes.

gs in a tear ip, fill the rup tap of sugar, two even tea-ry, one and three-quarter of alking powden. The accommodating of cakes and spread with jelly, May be looked in a hal

-Try placing good, plens ng-pan, pouring the balks a hot oven for thirty min-with two cups of flour, a eggs well beaten, and to o tablespoonfule of buller aggs. well beaten, two-things, sait and peoper to task, see can of salmon. Ressay, almon and add site above, their put in greach us, ove will but four tin, and butted by Mrs. Staff-Cagt.

OF FRUITS FOR DIET.

of FRUITS FOR DIST.

oteln, but they are with in the gincapple, which in disses, for the most part, were discount to the green. It has lang been out, which digests the passenant in congulating make each digestrons and for clink is indigestable, and which is indigestable, and which is indigestable, and which is indigestable, are which in they cannot est the functions used in the presenting such in the properties are the process of the place of some reason, has recently the cities that it is new on a loss rotting on the country quantities. Individual vary edigest in w apples. I know that the great them without the great them without the great them without the great the part of the significant of the country of the c then contains almost fifty effect of apples is increased in an empty stomach. The he baked apple.

he baked apple useful for simulating the any they are more disselfal they have a laxative effect. taken to avoid plume e. Plums in this state pe. Plums in this seate are in to the discolive orange, have in their seess a rest rank and Cherries souther acid. Cherries souther acid. Cherries souther acid. Peaches, spricely, although they have to be acid that they do not be acid acid that they do not be acid that the acid or not be acid that the the acid or not be acid that the the acid or not be acid that the acid or not be acid to the acid of the the acid or not be acid to the acid or not be acid or not be the strawoerry, blackbury, currant, huckleberry, and re sepecially valuable for the currant, incompanies for the respectful valuable for the review of these, is risk in and contains from as well. It is the companies the representation of the representation of the representation of the respectful values. The results of the result

Codet Byet

An Old Battle-Ground.

Cadets' Musical Brigade Visits Bradford.

Eractord is a lively little town, situated about seven inlies from Newmarket, Near by runs the Holland River, leading to the great lake. The residents of this place helped very mobily with our S-D effort, and therefore Capt, Loder thought it was only right and proper to hold a meeting there, to show in some measure our appreciation of them. Some of the members of the Cadets Musical Brigade were accordingly secured for a service, and, led by Adit. Smith, they gave a real good cencert in the Metchodist school-room. The place was packed, and the program was enjoyed by ell.

Bradford is an old battleground, many silvation hallies belig fought there in times gone by, and who can estimate the good done by a meeting of such a contracter—Partenden.

Niagara Falls Visited by the Cadets' Musical Brigade.

Miagara Falls Visited by the Cadets'

Busical Brigade.

The sail across the lake from Toronto in that paledal steamer, the Chippewa, was an ideal one from every standpoint. We sought to make the most of our time by giving a short musical program, to the delight of the many passengers. Prom Lewiston, N.Y., where we landed, the line runs along the "Great Gorge," where can be seen some of the finest seenery in the world, including the whitheal rapids. This ride was all too short, and we soon arrived at our destandion, where Capt Layman and Lieut. Scott gave us a coordial welcome, as did also the kind riends who entertained us. Two standie open-alis were held at Clifton on Saturday night, where great crowds throughed around us and a lasting impression was made.

The Sunday morning open-air was held in front of the Lafayette Hotel, overlooking the Falls. Many tourists, and also natives of the place stood and ilstend to the music and sharing with evident enjoyment. At the Union Sunday School room a holiess meeting was held, the power of God being made menifest in the surreader of one sout. The offermoon open-air at Falls View attracted the Italians, Callednay, and others residing there, and we feel sure that good was done.

At the night meeting it was estimated that 150 were turned away unable to gain admission. The members of the brigade did their part faithfully. The quartet sang one of their favorites, the audience drinking it to to the full. The subject, "Nome, swethome," musically illustrated, had a telling effect one backslider returned.

Altonial in the schoolhouse. The hall was filled to its utmost apacity, and thus closed one of the most successful week-ends of the Brigade.—Pattenden.

PROLIOTED TO GLORY.

IN MEMORY C - LYLA WILFRED, PALMERSTON.

Death has v' ited our circle and taken from our midst'n young I iend, who laved the army very much, and who often book a part in our demonstrations. She was a brit, I intelligent girl of fourteen, much loved by all who knew her, and with a brilliant future before her. She was a comfort to all in the home, always willing a help and to give a word of chear to lonely hearst. She enjoyed our prayer meetings very much, hur, ying house from zenool in order to be present at them, and taking a delight, in telling the people how dod had saved her and kept her day by day.

Very Suddenly she was taken ill, blood poisoning being the cause, and although everything was done to save her, it was unavalung and Lyla went to a better home. Throughout her stekness che did not been she would try and sing "Jesus knows all about our troubles," and we believe she was a help and biseeing to those who visited her on her dying bed. She did not fear death, but secund most instous that fer mother should pray for her brother, that he may be ready when the summons censes to him. We believe that God will speak to many hearts through the drath of this Young girl. We all join in sympathy for the bereaved ones and pray for them May we all be ready to meet her in that beautiful home.—Liett, E. E. Turner.

ADDRESSES OF OUR RESCUE HOMES.

ADDRESSES OF OUR RESCUE HOMES.

Toronto Hospital, 25 Esther St.
Toronto Shelter (Comen), 65 Farley Ave.
Toronto Shelter (Children), 916 Yonge St.
Lendon, Ont., Thverview Ave.
Hamilton, 13 Homilan Ave. W.
Ottawa, 345 Dally Ave.
Montreal, Que., 460 Seigneurs St.
Montreal, Que., 460 Seigneurs St.
Montreal Women's Shelter, 694 St. Antoine St.
St. John, M.B., 36 St. James St.
Halifax, N.S., 38 Gottingen St.
St. Johns, N.S., 38 Gottingen St.
St. Johns, N.S., 38 Gottingen St.
St. Johns, N.S., 38 Gottingen St.
N.J. Danney, N.S., 18 Gottingen St.
N.J. Danney, N.S., 18 Gottingen St.
N.J. Danney, N.S., 18 Gottingen St.
N.J. Danney, N.J. L.
Vancouver, D.C., 1834 Pender St.
Note.—No person should be sent to any Home without first hawles meetinged that they can be excelved. All communications to be addressed to the Matrem.

ONLY ONE KIND AND THAT IS

"Just One Girl" is the title of a song that was all the rage a few years ago. If this were paraphrased into "Just One Kind," and referring to musical instruments, we would have a chorus from our leading Bandmasters all over the world that

"Our Own Make" is THE Make for Them.

Any capable Bandmaster knows that it is impossible to get the best results in unison and harmony with various makes of instruments, and when it is demonstrated that nothing better can be obtained at anything like the price charged for "Our Own Make," there seems to be no good reason for getting any other goods than those made by our own concern. In fact, a silver-plated set of "Our Own Make" can be obtained at about the cost of other first-class makes in brass.

We supply these instruments at English list prices, reckoning $5 to the £, which is only possible by the International Trade Department and ourselves being content with a very moderate margin. This consideration is recognized and appreciated by our Bandmasters, who regard it as ample compensation for the delays occasioned on account of the factory being deluged with orders from all parts of the world,

Several corps are making special efforts to secure a set of these, the latest and among the most notable being Brantford, who have just received three silver-plated instruments, and have placed an order to-day for thirteen more, at a cost of over

ONE THOUSAND TWO HUNDRED DOLLARS

Well done, Brantford. Among others are the following: London, seven instruments; St. Thomas, five; Peterboro, four; Calgary, Montreal, and the Temple, while several others are preparing orders-in one or two cases an entire outfit.

LIST OF PRICES.

THE BANDMASTER'S CORNET has been introduced with a view to supplying Bandmusters with a really superior instrument at a very special price. Extra attention is given to the design and con-struction of the instruments, which are most elegant in style and finish, and made in three models. They will be found excellent for presentation purposes on the lines approved by National Headquarters,

Mr. William Short, L.R.A.M. (Lleentiate of the Royal Academy of Music), and Principal Trumpet His Majesty the King's Band, Eandmaster and Conductor London County Council, Band Contest Adjudicator, etc., says of our Cornets that they are equal to any Cernets he has ever blown, and that he could not wish for better.

THE BANDMASTER'S CORNET, in B flat, with light Corman silver valves, short action, split double water-key, full and clear bore, complete with shanks, lyre, and two silver-plated mouthpieces, tuning bit, cleaning needle and grease box; triple silver-plated, tastefully engraved, frested or burnished finish, or frested and burnished nounts, in velvet-lined leather case, white fittings and strap ......$75 00

No. 1a-IMPROVED MODEL A CORNET, in B flat, with German silver valves, clear bore, complete with shanks, lyre, and two silver-plated mouthpicces; triple silverplated, burnished or frosted finish, or frosted and burnished mounts, split double water-key, wood caso ...... 5D 00

CLASS A. Brass. Fluge! Horns ......$37 00 $12.50 Euphonium, three valves ........... 60 00 85.08 THE "BANDMASTER" EUPHONIUM "TRIUMPH," in B flat, with four German silver valves, large and clear bore, water-key, complete with lyre and silver-plated mouthpiece; silver-plated, frosted finish, or frosted and Same with three valves ...... 120 00

Trombone, E flat ...... 30 00
 Trembone, E flat
 37 50

 Trombone, G
 42 50

 Bambardon, E flat
 80 00
 Modium Bass, B flat ......100 00 Monster Double B ......120 60 (Large bore $5 extra.) Saxaphones.—Soprano, B flat ...... 55 00 Alto, E flat ....... 60 00 Tenor, B flat ...... 65 00 Baritone, E flat ..... 70 00 25 00 3D 00 Bass, B fiat ...... 90 00 - 25 OR Military Drums, from $25.00 up. Guards' Pattern Side Drums, $35.00. If cheaper lines are desired, we can supply them. Write for further particulars and Catalog.

We have a few Sets of PRONDERAPH RECORDS of the NEW PRIZE MARCHES in Stock. 23.00 for Set of S, or Sec. each. Order right away. They are aptendic quality, and reproduce the music of the renowned international Staff Band boautifully.

Trade Secretary, S. R. Temple, Ribert Street. Toronto.

Chorus.

The cross now covers my sins, The past is under the blood, I'm trusting in Jesus De all, My will is the will of my God.

My hope is all centred in Thee; I trust to recover Thy love, On earth Thy salvation to see, And then to enjoy to above.

I thirst for a life-giving God,

A God that on Calvary dued,
A fountain of water and blood,
Which gush from Immanuel's side!

THE UTTERMOST.

Tune.—N.B.B. 30.

Tune.—N.B.R. 80.
Come, with me visit Calvary,
Where our R deemer d.ed;
His blood now fills the foundain,
'Tis deep, 'tis fail,' tas wide.
He died from sin to sever
Our hearts and lives complete;
He gaves and keeps for ever
Those living at His feet.

God's great, free, full salvation is one-rel here and now;
Complete blood-hought redemption
Can be outsimed by you;
Reach out faith's hard, now claiming.
The cleaning hood will dow;
Look up just now, believing.
His fulness you shall know.

I will surrender fully.

And do my Saybor's will;
He shall now make me holy,
And with Himself me fill.

He's saying, I'm believing,
This blessing I now clash:
His Spirit I'm receiving,
My heart is in a flame,

One swee

NE WER MY HOME une,—N.B.B. 71.

Chorus. Nearer by home, mearer my home, I'm nearer my home to-day Than cor I've been before.

> EXPERIENCE. Tune.-No. Neve- Alone,

Tune.—No. Never Alone,
I once was far from J. sus,
And troi the path of sin:
My heart was and and weary,
No joy, no peace within,
I heard the Sautour calling,
When hope weemed almost gone;
He withspread, oil, so tenden:
"I'll no'er leave thee alone,

No. never alone.

I claimed His precious promise,
The bupden rolled away,
He brought me out of darkness
Into His glortous day.
And now I'm safely sheltered Never again to 'roam;
I prove His grace sufficient—
I'm never, no, never alone.
Superlines His lown required.

Sometimes His love requirem

Sometimes His love requirech
For me the mountain steep.
But I trust in Him who called me,
I know He is mighty to keep.
His promises are precious,
I calm them as my own,
He said He never would leave me,
Fic never would leave me alone.
Capt. Meikle, Reserve, Th

Nearer pr Father's house, Where in mansions bet Nearer the Great White Throne to-day Nearer the crystal sea.

Be usar me when my feet Are slipping o'er the brink; For I'm neuter home to-day. Nearer now than I think.

y solomn thought, me o'er and o'er-nome to-day, to-day ir I've been before,

I gasp for the stieam of Thy love, I gasp for the shellin of list love.
The spirit of rapture unknown.
And then to re-drink it above.
- Eternally fresh from the throne.

SONGS OF THE WEEK

BOUNDLESS SALVATION I

By The Coneral.

Tunes -N.B.B 111 or 112. On houndless salvariant D.cp occan of love!
On, fullness of mercy Christ brought from above,
The whole world redeeming, so rich and so free,
Now Howing for all inex—come, roll over me! What now is my object in life? What is my hope and desire? To follow the Heavenly Lamb, And after His image espire.

Chorus.

The heavenly gales are blowing.
The cleansing sea is flowing.
Beneath its waves I'm soling.
Hallelujahi I believe! (or)
I receive!

My sins they are many, their stains are so deep, And bitter the tears of remorse that I weep. But useless is weeping. Thou great crimson sea, Thy waters can cleanse me; come, roll over me!

The like is now flowing, I'm touching the wave, I hear the loud call of "The Alighty to Save"; Our fathir's growing bolder-delivered I'll be-I plunge heath the waters—they roll over me!

And now, hallelujah! the rest of my days Shall-gladly be spent in promoting His praise, Who opened His bosom to pour out this sea Of boundless salvation for you and for me!

ROCK OF AGES,

Tunes,-N.B.B. 20 or 91.

Rock of Ages, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thee, Let the water and the Mood. From Thy wounded side which flowed, Let of ain the double cure. Save from wrath, and make me pure,

Could my tears for ever flow, Could my zeal no languer know, These for sin could not atone. Thou must save, and Thon alone, In my hands no price I bring. Simply to Thy cross & cling.

While I draw this fleeting breath. wome 1 draw this fleeting breath, When in eyes shull close in death, When I rise to worlds unknown. See Thos on Thy Judgment Throne, Rock of Age, cleft for me, Let me hide myself in Thee.

SWEET LIBERTY

Tune .- In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree. Tune.—In the Shade of the Oft Apple Tree.

You all have heard and read the wondrous story

Of Jesus, how He died upon the tree,
And that was not for any praise and glory,
But just to save and set poor sinners free.
And how that He has suffered death to free you,
And give you pardon, peace, and purity.
Oh, how we all would deathy love to see you
Step into this glorious liberty.

Chorus.

In the Saviour there's sweet liberty; Only trust Five and you shall be free. He bids you all come, and He offers a home In the mansions of glory above Where our loved ones, now crossed o'er the sea, Are waiting for you and for me, And this is the truth, in old age and in youth, With the Saviour there's Sweet liberty.

How nice to know your sine on earth forgiven, To feel and know that Christ is all-in-all, To have that sure and blessed hope of heaven Which He so freely gives to one and all. Oh, do not longer shun this loving Saviour. And live content in sin and misery. But come and seek His loving smile and favor, The smile that sets the captive prisoner free. W. Morrow, Bandsman, Toronto Junction,

THE GREAT

at which the Cadets, now in Training, will be

COMMISSIONED FOR THE FIELD will take place at the Temple

Morday, July 16th, at 8 p.m., conducted by

Dufferin Grove Camp Weetings

Program for Final Week-End

Saturday, July 7 .- 8 p.m. Cadets' Foreign Demonstration, led by Lieut,-Colons Pugmire.

SUNDAY, JULY 8 .-- 11 a.m., 3 and 7 p.m. THE COMMISSIONER in command, assisted by T. H. Q. Staff,

Monday, July 9 .-- 3 p.m., led by Colonel Kyie, S p.m., Great Wind-Up under the presidency of

THE COMMISSIONER

United Corps and Bands, and T.H.O.

To Parents, Relations and Friends:

First Insertion.

two years ago. Believed to be living in Taranta. News wanted by brother-in-law.

S466, MAYERS, WILLIAM. Age 38, height 56, 7in., dark hair and complexion, hazel eyes, turker by trade. Supposed to be in Toronto. News waited 5227. BRADLEY, JAMES. Shoemaker. Left Boldwell twenty years ago. May have roug. to Michigan. Supposed to be marcied. Height of sandy complexion, age 50 to 63. Friends very surjective.

5267. KLAASSEN, BERNHARD GERARD. Left Holland for Canada in May, 1904. Age 35. Each known address, Regins, P. O. Friends very assessed. Second Insertion.

Second insert

then in St. John (N.B.) hospital. News sented.

5455. BURGESS, JOHN, Age 26, height in the

5456. BURGESS, JOHN, Age 26, height in the 5458 the and eyes, ruddy complexion. Has not learheard of since June, 1965. Guadamother anxiest

Last known address, Prince Albert, Sask.

5458. HUTCHESON, WILLIAM HALAN. The

164 left Gausacous Junction on the 2 am, cod head

1647 than 1648. The sample of the 2 am, cod head

1649 than 1649 than 1649 than 1649 than

1649 than 1649 than 1649 than 1649 than 1649 than 1649 than 1649 than

possibly be in Toronto.

5488. MOSES, HARRY. Age 20. Came of free the Old Lond in May. Supposed to have sees is Winnipeg. Friends anxious.

5489. SAVACE, HENRY. Age 34, height 56, 189trown curry hair, blue eyas. Lost heard of in Winnipeg. about four years ago. Brother unitous.

5489. POULSEN, S. C. Baiter. Left Demonstratine winter of 1892-83. Last known address, in $149Wellington. New Zealand. Father is dead. Pademonstration of the sees of the see

wanted i—stenographers

There are a few vacancies at Hesiqual There are a few vacancies at Headqua-fied Shorthands and Typists; also improvers who have not yet become oughly competent. Young people of sax, children of officers or soldiers, liberty to apair. Write to Sax, children in Write to liberty to apply. Write to The Chief Secretary, 20 Albert St., 767

22nd Year, No

TA B